ED AND PEGGY TYRCHNIEWICZ AWARD FOR INNOVATION IN TEACHING

Description
- The purpose of this award is to encourage and recognize successful innovative approaches to undergraduate teaching in the Faculty

Eligibility
- Open to individuals who are full-time continuing teaching staff in the Faculty or to groups containing at least one person who is a full-time staff member
- Individuals or groups may receive this award more than once; however, the award will not be made to an individual or group for an innovation which has previously been recognized with this award

Criteria
- Must have demonstrated an innovative approach to teaching in an undergraduate course during the previous academic year
- No definition of innovative is offered; the nominators are responsible for showing that the approach is innovative

Application Package
- Name(s) of nominee(s)
- Name(s) of nominator(s)
- Course(s) in which this innovation was applied
- Brief (less than 100 words) description of the innovation, suitable for use in press releases and similar promotion material
- Aims and objectives of the innovation
- Detailed description of innovation
- Outcomes of the innovation
- Comments from students (all instructors are expected to be to seek student feedback throughout the process, results from these questionnaires should be included)

Application Deadline
- Nominations must be submitted to the Associate Dean (Academic) by October 4, 2010