

Drama Department Funds that Need Your Support

Department of Drama Fund

Every one of your dollars goes towards programs and productions during this academic year and is directed to the area with greatest need. With six undergraduate degree programs, six graduate degree programs, four theatres, over 25 in-house productions a year, and numerous workshops —we are a busy department!

Drama Student Emergency Bursary Endowment Fund

This fund helps all Drama students, from all programs, at crucial times during their academic career. Irregular and long hours in rehearsal make it very difficult for Drama students to hold part-time jobs during the school year. Sometimes our students need to access the safety net this fund provides. Since the 2004-05 academic year we have distributed $19,200 to 39 students helping them get by when they needed it most.

Studio Theatre Endowment Fund

This endowment helps us purchase the supplies needed to create intricate and beautiful sets and costumes, replace and upgrade lighting and sound equipment, and it allows us to invite professional guest directors, designers and other theatre artists to work alongside our U of A Studio Theatre student company.

All donations are recognized in U of A Studio Theatre playbills and on the Department of Drama website. Gifts over $10 receive tax receipts. Every gift makes a difference and we deeply appreciate all contributions.
