Course Description and Objectives:
This course aims to develop your skills in Modern Standard Arabic (MSA), the language read and understood by educated Arabs from Iraq to Morocco, through systematic instruction and drills in reading, writing, listening, speaking, and translating. There will be four hours of instruction per week.
During this term, we will cover lessons 7 - 10 from Al-Kitaab fii Ta`allum al`Arabiyya: A Textbook for Arabic, Part Two. In each lesson you will be introduced to new grammatical and structural concepts, as well as vocabulary lists, in order to be able to read and understand content. After reading this content, you will read, understand, summarize and discuss the ideas in each lesson. You will be asked to select a theme related to each lesson and to write a short article about it. Selected readings in modern Arabic literature and cultural topics will be provided for reading, discussion, and translation. The course will include three lectures on Arabic cinema, modern narrative, and translation, based on watching an Arab film online, reading a 15 page story, “Al-Khoutouba”, by Baha Taher, and translating 750 words from English to Arabic from a selected article. These materials will be available on eClass.

By the end of this course, you are expected to be able to discuss different experiences, including travel, migration, and dreams for future, as well as to be able to present simple topics concerning Arab culture and society, such as arts, modern Arab narratives, women’s social positions, poverty, and wars. Based on lectures, discussions, and the writing assignments that follow them, you will be able to articulate your ideas clearly in writing, using a variety of structures and expressions.

Explanatory Notes on Assignments/homework and grade distribution:

Explanatory Notes on Textbook Assignments:
- Homework is given each class and is due every Thursday.
- Homework is marked according to completion and self correction of assigned drills, not the number of mistakes made.
- It is the student’s responsibility to recover missed assignments in case of absence.
- An absence is not an excuse for not being tested on what you have missed.
- Excused absence does not mean an automatic excused “homework extension”: if the absence is on a Thursday (day of homework submission) the student should submit the homework to the instructor by e-mail.
- Participation in class includes taking part in class/group activities and discussions, answering the instructor’s questions, preparing for the assigned class material prior to the lesson (watching the DVD, reading vocabulary, etc), and exhibiting a positive attitude in class with respect to material, time, peers, instructor.
- We will review class material prior to each exam.

Writing assignments:
- Arab film review (600 words), due February 12. (5%)
- Translation (750 words), due March 12. (5%)
- Modern Arabic Literature (800 words), due March 26. (5%)
  Class presentation: 12 - 15 minutes oral presentation in Arabic Fusha on a topic of students’ choice, April 02 & 04. (5%)
- Grading of the presentation is based on the student’s self-expression with MSA, use of formal structures, and avoiding slang/colloquial language.

Policy for Late Assignments:
- Students who consult in advance with an instructor regarding contingencies preventing the timely completion of an assignment may, at the discretion of the instructor, be granted an extension twice throughout the course with no penalty.
- Otherwise, all assignments should be handed in on the stated deadline. Any assignment not handed-in in time, unexcused late assignments will not be given any marks. No third excuse will be granted.
- Late excuses will not be accepted for any reason.

Required Notes:
“Policy about course outlines can be found in the Evaluation Procedures and Grading System of the University Calendar.”

Student Responsibilities:
Academic Integrity:
“The University of Alberta is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are particularly urged to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Code of Student Behaviour (online at www.governance.ualberta.ca) and avoid any behaviour that could potentially result in suspicions of cheating, plagiarism, misrepresentation of facts and/or participation in an offence. Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from the University.”
All students should consult the Academic Integrity website. If you have any questions, ask your instructor.
An instructor or coordinator who is convinced that a student has handed in work that he or she could not possibly reproduce without outside assistance is obliged, out of consideration of fairness to other students, to report the case to the Associate Dean of the Faculty. See the Academic Discipline Process.
Students involved in language courses and translation courses should be aware that the use of on-line translation to complete assignments constitutes a form of cheating as the student’s own understanding and work is therefore not reflected. Also, students in language courses should be aware that, while seeking the advice of native or expert speakers is often helpful, excessive editorial and creative help in assignments is considered a form of cheating that violates the Code of Student Behaviour.

Learning and Working Environment:
The Faculty of Arts is committed to ensuring all students; faculty and staff are able to study and work in an environment that is safe and free from discrimination and harassment. It does not tolerate behaviour that undermines that environment. The Department urges anyone who feels that this policy has been or is being violated to:
- Discuss the matter with the person whose behaviour is causing concern; or
- If that discussion is unsatisfactory, or there is concern that directs discussion is inappropriate or threatening, discuss it with the Chair of the Department.
For additional advice or assistance regarding this policy you may contact the Office of the Student Ombuds. Information about the University of Alberta Discrimination and Harassment Policy and Procedures is described in UAPPOL.

Territorial Statement:
“The University of Alberta acknowledges that we are located on Treaty 6 territory, and respects the histories, languages, and cultures of the First Nations, Métis, Inuit, and all First Peoples of Canada, whose presence continues to enrich our vibrant community.” (from the beginning of the Calendar).
University of Alberta Sexual Violence Policy:
The Sexual Violence Policy was approved by GFC in June 2017. It plays a vital role in ensuring a safe and respectful learning and working environment. As defined in the policy, sexual violence is any sexual act or act of a sexual nature, or act targeting sexuality, whether physical or psychological, committed without consent. Sexual violence is a complex and serious problem in society and on university campuses. Sexual violence can affect individuals of all gender identities, gender expressions, and sexual orientations, as well as those from all ages, abilities, racial, cultural and economic backgrounds. Through this policy, the University of Alberta recognizes its responsibility to reduce sexual violence in the University community. The university aims to do so by fostering a culture of consent and support through education, training and policy. The University recognizes the possible effects of trauma on those who have experienced sexual violence and supports the efforts of individuals to seek support and recover. To read the policy in more detail, please visit: https://policiesonline.ualberta.ca/PoliciesProcedures/Policies/Sexual-Violence-Policy.pdf

Recording of Lectures:
Audio or video recording, digital or otherwise, of lectures, labs, seminars or any other teaching environment by students is allowed only with the prior written consent of the instructor or as a part of an approved accommodation plan. Student or instructor content, digital or otherwise, created and/or used within the context of the course is to be used solely for personal study, and is not to be used or distributed for any other purpose without prior written consent from the content author(s).

Attendance, Absences, and Missed Grade Components:
Regular attendance is essential for optimal performance in any course. In cases of potentially excusable absences due to illness or domestic affliction, notify your instructor by e-mail within two days. Regarding absences that may be excusable and procedures for addressing course components missed as a result, consult sections Attendance and Examinations of the University Calendar. Be aware that unexcused absences will result in partial or total loss of the grade for the "attendance and participation" component(s) of a course, as well as for any assignments that are not handed-in or completed as a result. Deferral of term work is a privilege and not a right; there is no guarantee that a deferral will be granted. Misrepresentation of facts to gain a deferral is a serious breach of the Code of Student Behaviour.

In this course, “attendance and participation” means attending each class, from the beginning to the end, paying attention to the instructor, and participating fully in all class activities. Regular attendance is mandatory; unexcused absences and lateness will negatively impact your grade.
If absence is due to severe illness or any other considerable reason, student should inform the instructor before the beginning of class (even by e-mail).
Tardiness or early leaving the class is counted as an unexcused absence. No excuse will be accepted if the instructor is not informed before class, unless in case of emergency. The instructor may accept a reasonable excuse for absence with no penalty twice throughout the course, otherwise frequent excused/unexcused absences (with no emergency reasons) will impact your grade.
In case of unexcused and unjustified absence from test and/or exam, the instructor may not accept to reschedule this particular exam.
- Please check your emails regularly for any update regarding class (assignments, test dates, cancellation, etc.)
- In case of unforeseen circumstances that may lead to class cancellation, students will be notified in advance during previous classes or by e-mail (in case of an emergency). So please do NOT leave class before consulting your emails.

Grading:
Assessment of the individual course components may be in the form of numerical marks or letter grades. The University Grading Procedure mandates that "a student’s level of achievement of the goals/outcomes of a course, their grade, and the descriptor of that grade must be aligned" (https://policiesonline.ualberta.ca/). The following guidelines have been adopted by the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies:
