Course Description, Objectives and Expected Learning Outcomes:
This course examines the notions of beauty and aesthetics through their representations in art, language, culture and literature. Students will gain a broader understanding of the historical development of the notions of beauty and aesthetics in France, although not exclusively. This is a “cours intégré”, which means that language skills will be practiced at the same time as critical tools for textual/pictorial analysis will be taught. The course will be delivered in French and the students will be encouraged to speak French but room will be made for discussions in English when necessary.
At the end of this course, successful students will be able to:
- show the richness and the shifting/variable component of the concepts of Beauty and Aesthetics through various definitions of the terms and various quotations (by artists and writers) and examples.
- paraphrase in modern French the complex language used in Classical Antiquity or in the Middle Ages in the texts that theorize Beauty.
- name the key theoretical parameters set by the Ancients as the core aspects of Beauty and examine/recognize how they were concretely implemented in architecture, sculpture, literature, etc.
- assess how some of these key concepts were "recycled" in the Middle Ages, while other elements, not being "in the spirit" of those times, were not.
- discuss the question of Beauty and gender.
- contrast the vision of Beauty that was predominant in the Renaissance period, with the ones that were prevalent in the Middle Ages and in the Ancient world.
- examine and question the link between Beauty/Aesthetics and the notions of “good” and “bad”.
- list and define the characteristics of some art movements from the 18th and 19th centuries (i.e. Barocco, Classicism, Romanticism, Impressionism, etc.) and recognize their influence in architecture or in the art of gardening.
- summarize how the various approaches to the concepts of Beauty and Aesthetics shaped themselves throughout the centuries.
- collect information as a group during an interview and (still as a group) discuss and select the key information to be used for an oral presentation.
- show in that oral presentation to what extent these two notions are relevant to some professions today.

Texts:

All documents and links to documents required for the class will all be posted on the course website.

Grade Distribution (see “Explanatory Notes”):

Participation in class activities and attendance (self-evaluation due on e-class – April 9th, by noon) 20%

Test and/or Quiz (Feb. 5th or 7th) 15%

Group presentation (Feb. 26th and 28th) 20%

Written assignments
- in class (March 14th) 20%
- at home, final written assignment (due on e-class – April 10th, by noon) 25%

Date of Deferred Final Exam (if applicable):

Please consult the following site: https://calendar.ualberta.ca/content.php?catoid=6&navoid=806#Examinations_(Exams)}
Explanatory Notes on Assignments:
1) Participation and attendance
   Very regular attendance is expected.
   In class, we will engage into active learning with individual and group activities. Your participation in these activities is evaluated for:
   - how well prepared you come to class: you’re supposed to prepare all work assigned for each class session (e.g. readings, homework activities),
   - your spontaneous contribution to class discussions and activities,
   - your use of the French language.

   The marking rubrics will be provided on e-class.

   Students are also strongly encouraged to use the course Moodle to share any of their questions on the course content and answer them. This is particularly relevant for shy students, although all are expected to participate orally in class.

   Important note: Disruptive behaviour in class is a sign of disrespect both to the instructor and to your fellow students, and will not be tolerated. Activities, such as chatting, surfing the Internet, using or frequently checking your phone, studying for another class, etc., will result in a low participation grade. Cell phones should be turned OFF during class, and should remain put away.

2) Test and/or Quiz
   - This is designed to test the students’ knowledge of class material, including language points.
   - Detailed instructions will be provided by the professor ahead of time.

3) Group presentation (20-25 minutes)
   - Students will give short presentations in class, in small groups to share the results of their interviews with professionals on the relation between their profession and the key notions of beauty and aesthetics.

4) Written assignments
   In-class written assignment (around 900-1000 words in length)
   - Students will be asked to write a commentary in class about a document (not studied in class) linked to the work done on Beauty and Aesthetics in Antiquity and in the Middle Ages. Class material, bilingual dictionary (English<>French) and monolingual French dictionary allowed.

   At home, final assignment (around 1 000 words in length)
   - Students will choose between two different written assignments. One will be more research-oriented.
   - Detailed instructions will be provided by the professor ahead of time.
Required Notes:

Policy about course outlines can be found in the Evaluation Procedures and Grading System of the University Calendar.

Student Responsibilities:

Academic Integrity:
The University of Alberta is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are particularly urged to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Code of Student Behaviour (online at www.governance.ualberta.ca) and avoid any behaviour that could potentially result in suspicions of cheating, plagiarism, misrepresentation of facts and/or participation in an offence. Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from the University.

All students should consult the Academic Integrity website. If you have any questions, ask your instructor.

An instructor or coordinator who is convinced that a student has handed in work that he or she could not possibly reproduce without outside assistance is obliged, out of consideration of fairness to other students, to report the case to the Associate Dean of the Faculty. See the Academic Discipline Process.

Language courses:

Students involved in language courses and translation courses should be aware that the use of on-line translation to complete assignments constitutes a form of cheating as the student’s own understanding and work is therefore not reflected. Also, students in language courses should be aware that, while seeking the advice of native or expert speakers is often helpful, excessive editorial and creative help in assignments is considered a form of cheating that violates the Code of Student Behaviour.

Learning and Working Environment:
The Faculty of Arts is committed to ensuring all students; faculty and staff are able to study and work in an environment that is safe and free from discrimination and harassment. It does not tolerate behaviour that undermines that environment. The Department urges anyone who feels that this policy is being violated to:
- Discuss the matter with the person whose behaviour is causing concern; or
- If that discussion is unsatisfactory, or there is concern that direct discussion is inappropriate or threatening, discuss it with the Chair of the Department.

For additional advice or assistance regarding this policy you may contact the Office of the Student Ombuds. Information about the University of Alberta Discrimination and Harassment Policy and Procedures is described in UAPPOL.
Territorial Statement:
“The University of Alberta acknowledges that we are located on Treaty 6 territory, and respects the histories, languages, and cultures of the First Nations, Métis, Inuit, and all First Peoples of Canada, whose presence continues to enrich our vibrant community.” (from the beginning of the Calendar).

University of Alberta Sexual Violence Policy:
The Sexual Violence Policy was approved by GFC in June 2017. It plays a vital role in ensuring a safe and respectful learning and working environment. As defined in the policy, sexual violence is any sexual act or act of a sexual nature, or act targeting sexuality, whether physical or psychological, committed without consent. Sexual violence is a complex and serious problem in society and on university campuses. Sexual violence can affect individuals of all gender identities, gender expressions, and sexual orientations, as well as those from all ages, abilities, racial, cultural and economic backgrounds. Through this policy, the University of Alberta recognizes its responsibility to reduce sexual violence in the University community. The university aims to do so by fostering a culture of consent and support through education, training and policy. The University recognizes the possible effects of trauma on those who have experienced sexual violence and supports the efforts of individuals to seek support and recover.
To read the policy in more detail, please visit: https://policiesonline.ualberta.ca/PoliciesProcedures/Policies/Sexual-Violence-Policy.pdf

Recording of Lectures:
Audio or video recording, digital or otherwise, of lectures, labs, seminars or any other teaching environment by students is allowed only with the prior written consent of the instructor or as a part of an approved accommodation plan. Student or instructor content, digital or otherwise, created and/or used within the context of the course is to be used solely for personal study, and is not to be used or distributed for any other purpose without prior written consent from the content author(s).

Attendance, Absences, and Missed Grade Components:
Regular attendance is essential for optimal performance in any course. In cases of potentially excusable absences due to illness or domestic affliction, notify your instructor by e-mail within two days. Regarding absences that may be excusable and procedures for addressing course components missed as a result, consult sections Attendance and Examinations of the University Calendar. Be aware that unexcused absences will result in partial or total loss of the grade for the “attendance and participation” component(s) of a course, as well as for any assignments that are not handed-in or completed as a result.
Deferral of term work is a privilege and not a right; there is no guarantee that a deferral will be granted. Misrepresentation of facts to gain a deferral is a serious breach of the Code of Student Behaviour.
In this course, students are allowed to miss three sessions without penalty regardless of the reason for their absence (excusable or not), after which two percentage point per absence will be deducted from the attendance and participation grade. It is recommended not to miss a session unless necessary.

Policy for Late Assignments:
Late assignments will not be accepted without prior arrangements made with the instructor for an extension at the latest one day before the due date. If no such arrangement is made 5% will be deducted from the assignment’s mark for each day past the due date.

Disclaimer:
Any typographical errors in this syllabus are subject to change and will be announced in class and posted on eClass. The date of the final examination is set by the Registrar and takes precedence over the final examination date reported in this syllabus.

Student Resources:
The best all-purpose website for student services is: https://www.ualberta.ca/current-students.

Accessibility Resources: (1 – 80 SUB)
The University of Alberta is committed to creating work and learning communities that inspire and enable all people to reach their full potential. Accessibility Resources promotes an accessible, inclusive, and universally designed environment. For general information to register for services visit the Accessibility Resources webpage.

The Academic Success Centre: (1-80 SUB)
The Academic Success Centre offers a variety of workshops on effective study and exam strategies. There are in-person and online sessions available for a modest fee.

The Centre for Writers: (1-42 Assiniboia Hall)
The Centre for Writers offers free one-on-one writing support to students, faculty, and staff. Students can request consultation for a writing project at any stage of development. Instructors can request class visits and presentations.

Health and Wellness Support: There are many health and community services available to current students. For more information visit the Health and Wellness Support webpage.

Office of the Student Ombuds:
The Office of the Student Ombuds offers confidential interviews, advice and support to students facing academic, discipline, interpersonal and financial difficulties.
Grading:

Assessment of the individual course components may be in the form of numerical marks or letter grades. The final letter grade will be based on "a combination of absolute achievement and relative performance in a class" (University Calendar, Evaluation Procedures and Grading System). The University Grading Procedure mandates that "a student’s level of achievement of the goals/outcomes of a course, their grade, and the descriptor of that grade must be aligned" (https://policiesonline.ualberta.ca/). The following guidelines have been adopted by the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies:

“MLCS Undergraduate Grading Scale”
