Course Description:
Intermediate Norwegian (NORW 212)/Swedish (SWED 212) builds on the knowledge acquired in Second Year/First Semester Norwegian/Swedish to advance grammar and communicative skills. The vocabulary is increased through listening and reading comprehension activities representing various types of texts and presentations. As in Beginners’ Norwegian/Swedish the course is built on a foundation of interaction, communication, and culture. Activities consisting of individual, paired, and small group work are designed to give you ample opportunity not just to actively practice your speaking ability but also to develop your language skills for real-life situations outside the classroom. Moreover, the inclusion of music and film will offer a unique approach to enhance your awareness of Norwegian/Swedish culture while aiding in the practice of communication skills. Though the course combines both Norwegian and Swedish learning, your focus will be on your language of choice, that is, the language you have signed up for. The fourth required hour will be decided during the first week of class.

Course Objectives:
At the end of this course you should be able to communicate in Norwegian/Swedish about everyday life, including sports and outdoor life, entertainment and interests, daily routine (things you do in your everyday life), climate and weather, seasons and holidays. You should be able to write with greater dexterity, coherency, and vocabulary. You should also be comfortable with spoken Norwegian/Swedish used in the classroom as well as to be able to read a variety of types of texts emphasizing more sophisticated aspects of Norwegian/Swedish culture, life, and society. Due to the fact both languages will be dealt with in this course, as a bonus, you will also gain some passive knowledge of the other language.

Texts:
Norwegian: Sett i gang I, II (textbook available online and the University of Alberta Bookstore)
Swedish: Sätt i gång I, II (textbook provided as PDF)

Explanatory Notes on Assignments:

General:
Announcements about tests, quizzes, homework, and other assignments will be made both in class and on eClass. If you are absent, it is your responsibility to check eClass for the assignment. Due to the limited number of photocopies I am permitted to make per student, it is also your responsibility to check eClass daily and upon request to print out any additional handouts or assignments and bring them to class. In certain cases, electronic access is sufficient. Preparedness is your responsibility, so please have all necessary texts and materials when you come to class.

Oral Work: Participation, and Attendance – 15%:
This portion of your final grade is based on your participation level during class, your willingness to take part in pair and/or small group work, and attendance. Poor attendance will be reflected in this part of your grade. Your daily grade is based on the degree to which you:

- Attend class regularly, arrive on time, and remain for the entire duration;
- Are engaged and focused during both pair/group and individual work;
- Demonstrate you have studied the material and completed all written homework to the best of your ability;
- Show respect for your classmates’ contributions to class;
- Take responsibility to ask for clarification of an assignment when necessary;

NOTE: You may miss (for whatever reason: illness, family wedding, etc.) three classes without an adverse effect to your final grade. More than three absences during the semester, however, will result in a reduction of your final participation mark by one letter grade for each additional absence above three. Please note, this does not mean you may miss more classes with a note, a valid excuse, etc. Also note that film screenings are required. If you fail to attend a film screening or leave in the middle, you will be counted absent.

Written Work – 10%:
This portion of your final grade is based on your written work including homework, short essays, and assignments completed in and outside of class. Short essays will be collected, corrected, and returned with a letter grade. In some instances, a “rewrite” or final draft will be done. Completed exercises assigned from the book will not be collected; however, we will go over these in class. In certain cases, answer keys will be posted on the overhead or eClass, so you can check yourself. If it’s apparent to me that you’ve not done the homework, it will reflect in this part of your grade.

Quizzes – 20%:
Approximately every other week. No makes ups given except under direst of circumstances.
Midterm – 30%:
The midterm will cover all material taken up from day one of the course and will count as 30% of the final course grade. The midterm will take place Thurs., February 14, 2019 during regular class time. If for whatever reason this date changes, you will be notified well in advance.

Final – 30%:
The midterm will cover all material taken up from day one of the course and will count as 30% of the final grade. This written only exam will take place Tues., April 16, 2019 @ 2pm. If for whatever reason this date changes, you will be notified well in advance.

Cell phones, laptops, tablets:
As many of the materials you will be working with will be available in electronic form, cell phones, laptops, and tablets will be permitted for classroom activities only. Any other type of use is highly discouraged. If I feel you are abusing this policy, I will give you one email warning. If the behaviour persists it will reflect in your participation mark at the end of the course.

Required Notes:

Policy about course outlines can be found in the Evaluation Procedures and Grading System of the University Calendar.

Student Responsibilities:

Academic Integrity:
The University of Alberta is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are particularly urged to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Code of Student Behaviour (online at www.governance.ualberta.ca) and avoid any behaviour that could potentially result in suspicions of cheating, plagiarism, misrepresentation of facts and/or participation in an offence. Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from the University.

All students should consult the Academic Integrity website. If you have any questions, ask your instructor.

An instructor or coordinator who is convinced that a student has handed in work that he or she could not possibly reproduce without outside assistance is obliged, out of consideration of fairness to other students, to report the case to the Associate Dean of the Faculty. See the Academic Discipline Process.

Language courses:
Students involved in language courses and translation courses should be aware that the use of on-line translation to complete assignments constitutes a form of cheating as the student’s own understanding and work is therefore not reflected.
Also, students in language courses should be aware that, while seeking the advice of native or expert speakers is often helpful, excessive editorial and creative help in assignments is considered a form of cheating that violates the Code of Student Behaviour.

Learning and Working Environment:
The Faculty of Arts is committed to ensuring all students, faculty, and staff are able to study and work in an environment that is safe and free from discrimination and harassment. It does not tolerate behaviour that undermines that environment. The Department urges anyone who feels that this policy is being violated to:

- Discuss the matter with the person whose behaviour is causing concern; or
- If that discussion is unsatisfactory, or there is concern that direct discussion is inappropriate or threatening, discuss it with the Chair of the Department.

For additional advice or assistance regarding this policy, you may contact the Office of the Student Ombuds. Information about the University of Alberta Discrimination and Harassment Policy and Procedures is described in UAPPOL.

Territorial Statement:
“The University of Alberta acknowledges that we are located on Treaty 6 territory, and respects the histories, languages, and cultures of the First Nations, Métis, Inuit, and all First Peoples of Canada, whose presence continues to enrich our vibrant community.” (from the beginning of the Calendar).

University of Alberta Sexual Violence Policy:
The Sexual Violence Policy was approved by GFC in June 2017. It plays a vital role in ensuring a safe and respectful learning and working environment. As defined in the policy, sexual violence is any sexual act or act of a sexual nature, or an act targeting sexuality, whether physical or psychological, committed without consent. Sexual violence is a complex and serious problem in society and on university campuses. Sexual violence can affect individuals of all gender identities, gender expressions, and sexual orientations, as well as those from all ages, abilities, racial, cultural, and economic backgrounds. Through this policy, the University of Alberta recognizes its responsibility to reduce sexual violence in the University community. The University aims to do so by fostering a culture of consent and support through education, training, and policy. The University recognizes the possible effects of trauma on those who have experienced sexual violence and supports the efforts of individuals to seek support and recover.

To read the policy in more detail, please visit: https://policiesonline.ualberta.ca/PoliciesProcedures/Policies/Sexual-Violence-Policy.pdf

Recording of Lectures:
Audio or video recording, digital or otherwise, of lectures, labs, seminars, or any other teaching environment by students is allowed only with the prior written consent of the instructor or as part of an approved accommodation plan. Student or instructor content, digital or otherwise, created and/or used within the context of the course is to be used solely for personal study, and is not to be used or distributed for any other purpose without prior written consent from the content author(s).

Attendance, Absences, and Missed Grade Components:
Regular attendance is essential for optimal performance in any course. In cases of potentially excusable absences due to illness or domestic affliction, notify your instructor by e-mail within two days. Regarding absences that may be excusable and procedures for addressing course components missed as a result, consult sections Attendance and Examinations of the University Calendar. Be aware that unexcused absences will result in partial or total loss of the grade for the “attendance and participation” component(s) of a course, as well as for any assignments that are not handed-in or completed as a result. Deferral of term work is a privilege and not a right; there is no guarantee that a deferral will be granted. Misrepresentation of facts to gain a deferral is a serious breach of the Code of Student Behaviour.

In this course, attendance and participation are required and will be monitored by a daily attendance sheet. As stated above more than three absences during the semester will result in a reduction of your final participation mark by one letter grade for each additional absence above three. Please note, this does not mean you may miss more classes with a note, a valid excuse, etc.

Also, as mentioned above, note that film screenings are required. If you fail to attend a film screening you will be counted absent. Out of respect for the instructor and other students, texting and other cell phone use, as well as the use of laptops for purposes other than notetaking, are not allowed in the classroom. If I feel you are abusing this policy, I will give you one email warning. If the behaviour persists it will reflect in your participation mark at the end of the course.

Policy for Late Assignments:
Students who consult in advance with an instructor regarding contingencies preventing the timely completion of an assignment may, at the discretion of the instructor, be granted an extension.

Disclaimer:
Any typographical errors in this syllabus are subject to change and will be announced in class and posted on eClass. The date of the final examination is set by the Registrar and takes precedence over the final examination date reported in this syllabus.

Grading:
Assessment of the individual course components may be in the form of numerical marks or letter grades. The final letter grade will be based on "a combination of absolute achievement and relative performance in a class" (University Calendar, Evaluation Procedures and Grading System). The University Grading Procedure mandates that "a student’s level of achievement of the goals/outcomes of a course, their grade, and the descriptor of that grade must be aligned" (https://policiesonline.ualberta.ca/). The following guidelines have been adopted by the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies:

Notes on Grades:

According to the UAPPOL Grading Procedure Policy pre-determined quotas of letter grades in courses are not permitted, though Faculties may recommend grade distributions. Accordingly, on March 11, 2015, Arts Faculty Council debated and approved the following motion “The Faculty of Arts recommends that the class average in each undergraduate course fall in a range around the Faculty historical average grade for that course level . . .” The complete policy can be found on the Faculty of Arts intranet, but in summary the effective range for each level will be:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
