Course Description and Objectives:
This course surveys the history of folklore studies, with particular emphasis on how folklore has been collected, written, transmitted and studied from the 17th century to the present. At the end of this course, successful students will be able to define folklore and identify examples of folklore in a variety of genres and contexts, describe major trends in how folklore has been used and understood, and analyze how specific cultural objects or stories meet, fail to meet, challenge, or stretch conventional scholarly understandings of folklore and its place in cultures worldwide.

Course Format:
The objectives of this course will be met through a combination of lectures, assigned readings, audiovisual materials, and small-group discussions/activities.

Texts:

Required (all texts are freely available online through Moodle):
Madame d’Aulnoy, “The White Cat”
Madame le Prince de Beaumont, "Beauty and the Beast"
Bruno Bettelheim, "The Struggle for Meaning" (Introduction)
Paul Delarue, "The Story of Grandmother"
Robert Dobler, “Ghosts in the Machine: Mourning the MySpace Dead”
Emily Eakin, “Bacteria on the Brain,” The New Yorker
Hearne, "Disney Revisited"
Charles Perrault, “Puss in Boots,” "Little Red Riding Hood," “Cinderella” and "Blue Beard"
Joseph Jacobs, "Cap O'Rushes," "Molly Whuppie," "Jack and the Beanstalk," Rowe, “Feminism and Fairy Tales”

Explanatory Notes on Assignments:

Group Activity Reports: On most Fridays during the semester, students will hand in a report on the activity/discussion planned for that day. These reports will be prepared either before or during class, individually or in small groups, depending on the specific assignment. Their format and content will vary. The professor will give detailed instructions for each report.

Midterm Tests: Each exam will cover the content of the professor’s lectures and the assigned readings. A review session will be held prior to each test.

Final Project: Each student will prepare a final project related to the course content. This will consist of conducting research, writing a short paper (3-5 pages), and presenting the project to the rest of the class during the final week of the semester. Detailed instructions will be provided by the professor ahead of time.

Required Notes:
“Policy about course outlines can be found in the Evaluation Procedures and Grading System of the University Calendar.”

Student Responsibilities:

Academic Integrity:
The University of Alberta is committed to the highest standards of academic integrity and honesty. Students are expected to be familiar with these standards regarding academic honesty and to uphold the policies of the University in this respect. Students are particularly urged to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the Code of Student Behaviour and avoid any behaviour that could potentially result in suspicions of cheating, plagiarism, misrepresentation of facts and/or participation in an offence. Academic dishonesty is a serious offence and can result in suspension or expulsion from the University.

All students should consult the Academic Integrity website. If you have any questions, ask your instructor.

An instructor or coordinator who is convinced that a student has handed in work that he or she could not possibly reproduce without outside assistance is obliged, out of consideration of fairness to other students, to report the case to the Associate Dean of the Faculty. See the Academic Discipline Process.

Learning and Working Environment:
The Faculty of Arts is committed to ensuring all students; faculty and staff are able to study and work in an environment that is safe and free from discrimination and harassment. It does not tolerate behaviour that undermines that environment. The Department urges anyone who feels that this policy is being violated to:
- Discuss the matter with the person whose behaviour is causing concern; or
- If that discussion is unsatisfactory, or there is concern that direct discussion is inappropriate or threatening, discuss it with the Chair of the Department.

For additional advice or assistance regarding this policy you may contact the Office of the Student Ombuds. Information about the University of Alberta Discrimination and Harassment Policy and Procedures is described in UAPPOL.

Sexual Violence Policy:

It is the policy of the University of Alberta that sexual violence committed by any member of the University community is prohibited and constitutes misconduct. Resources and more information can be found at https://www.ualberta.ca/campus-life/sexual-violence

Territorial Statement:

“The University of Alberta acknowledges that we are located on Treaty 6 territory, and respects the histories, languages, and cultures of the First Nations, Métis, Inuit, and all First Peoples of Canada, whose presence continues to enrich our vibrant community.” (from the beginning of the Calendar).

Recording of Lectures:

Audio or video recording, digital or otherwise, of lectures, labs, seminars or any other teaching environment by students is allowed only with the prior written consent of the instructor or as a part of an approved accommodation plan. Student or instructor content, digital or otherwise, created and/or used within the context of the course is to be used solely for personal study, and is not to be used or distributed for any other purpose without prior written consent from the content author(s).

Attendance, Absences, and Missed Grade Components:

Regular attendance is essential for optimal performance in any course. In cases of potentially excusable absences due to illness or domestic affliction, notify your instructor by e-mail within two days. Regarding absences that may be excusable and procedures for addressing course components missed as a result, consult sections Attendance and Examinations of the University Calendar. Be aware that unexcused absences will result in partial or total loss of the grade for the “attendance and participation” component(s) of a course, as well as for any assignments that are not handed-in or completed as a result.

Deferral of term work is a privilege and not a right; there is no guarantee that a deferral will be granted. Misrepresentation of facts to gain a deferral is a serious breach of the Code of Student Behaviour.

In this course, you are allowed three unexcused absences maximum. Each unexcused absence beyond the allotted three will result in a 1 percent penalty on the final course grade.
Policy for Late Assignments:
All work is to be turned in electronically or in class, depending on the case, on the day for which it is assigned. After the indicated deadline, work will be accepted with a 5% penalty, with an additional 5%-per-day penalty assessed for each subsequent day of lateness. Students who consult in advance with the professor regarding contingencies preventing the timely completion of an assignment may, at the discretion of the instructor, be granted an extension.

Disclaimer:
Any typographical errors in this syllabus are subject to change and will be announced in class and posted on eClass.

Student Resources:
The best all-purpose website for student services is: https://www.ualberta.ca/current-students.

Accessibility Resources: (1 – 80 SUB)
The University of Alberta is committed to creating work and learning communities that inspire and enable all people to reach their full potential. Accessibility Resources promotes an accessible, inclusive, and universally designed environment. For general information to register for services visit the Accessibility Resources webpage.

The Academic Success Centre: (1-80 SUB)
The Academic Success Centre offers a variety of workshops on effective study and exam strategies. There are in-person and online sessions available for a modest fee.

The Centre for Writers: (1-42 Assiniboia Hall)
The Centre for Writers offers free one-on-one writing support to students, faculty, and staff. Students can request consultation for a writing project at any stage of development. Instructors can request class visits and presentations.

Health and Wellness Support: There are many health and community services available to current students. For more information visit the Health and Wellness Support webpage.

Office of the Student Ombuds:
The Office of the Student Ombuds offers confidential interviews, advice and support to students facing academic, discipline, interpersonal and financial difficulties.

Grading:
Assessment of the individual course components may be in the form of numerical marks or letter grades. The final letter grade will be based on "a combination of absolute achievement and relative performance in a class" (University Calendar, Evaluation Procedures and Grading System). The University Grading Procedure mandates that "a student’s level of achievement of the goals/outcomes of a course, their grade, and the descriptor of that grade must be aligned" (https://policiesonline.ualberta.ca/). The following guidelines have been adopted by the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies:
