Department of Philosophy
Graduate Students Directed Reading Form

Instructions:
1. This form is for graduate student only.
2. Reading courses must be approved by your interim advisor or supervisor and by the Associate Chair, Graduate Studies (ACG). This is normally done at your annual meeting at the beginning of the year. If not, contact your advisor/supervisor and the ACG to get permission to register in a reading course.
3. Contact the instructor you want to work with and fill out this form in collaboration with him or her.
4. Sign the form and give it to your advisor or supervisor for signature. He or she will then forward it to the ACG. You will be enrolled upon receipt of the filled and signed form.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course #</th>
<th>5-digit catalog # (found on Beartracks)</th>
<th>Semester and Year</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

Course title (max. 55 characters). This title will appear on your transcript and cannot duplicate the title of courses currently in the University Calendar

Course description and proposed work:

Tentative reading list:

Assignment weights and due dates: The final assignment is normally due on the last day of classes.
Proposed schedule of meetings: the student is expected to meet regularly with the instructor throughout the term. When in-person meetings are not possible, alternatives such as Skype meetings must be arranged.

Student’s Signature: ____________________________ Date: _____________

Advisor/Supervisor’s Signature: ____________________________ Date: _____________

Associate Chair’s Signature: ____________________________ Date: _____________