Hello, world! My name is Jennifer Ha and I’m in my final year as a political studies major at Augustana. In both my studies and in my personal life, I am very interested in topics regarding race, colonialism, and all forms of social justice. As a member of the Augustana community, I strive to tie these interests with building an environment that welcomes and empowers all different types of people. I know that our small, tight-knit campus is the perfect opportunity for people of all backgrounds to learn, connect, and grow together and I look enjoy being a small part of that campus-wide process! On top of thinking about social justice, I like to write and perform spoken word poetry, eat candy, and hear about people’s pets. I can’t wait to meet everyone at International Student Orientation in January and throughout the rest of the school year at various events and programs!
