Treaty 7 Health Careers Bursary Program
Applicants for the Treaty 7 Health Careers Bursary must meet the following criteria: 1) Must be a Registered Treaty 7 Member (Please provide copy of Status Card); 2) Must be attending a Full-time Health Program in a recognized Post-secondary University, College, or Technical Institutions (Please provide copy of Student ID Card); 3) Must provide copy of current registration; 4) Must submit a one page essay on your career goals within the Health field and any previous work you have held in your community (if applicable); 5) Must provide ONE of the following: a) Letter of support from either academic instructor or community member or b) Reference letter from current or previous employer; 6) Must submit “Treaty 7 Health Careers Bursary Program” Application.
Deadline: December – Please contact award provider for further details.

Future Mohawk Leaders Award
The Higher Education Program has once again received a very generous donation from an anonymous donor. This donation, along with assistance from the Tribal Council, will allow scholarships to be awarded to eight undergraduate and two graduate students. The scholarships will be in the amount of $3,000 and are nonrenewable. This scholarship is open to all Mohawk students who are enrolled with the Saint Regis Mohawk Tribe, regardless of where they attend college. To apply for the Future Mohawk Leaders Award, applicants must submit an original essay outlining the following criteria: 1) Career aspirations; 2) Specific financial need; 3) Expenses that the scholarship will meet. Essays must be submitted via email as a Microsoft Word document along with supporting documents to stephaniei.cook@srmt-nsn.gov. Deadline: December 14, 2015 @ 4:00 PM

SAA Native American Scholarships
The Native American Scholarships Fund is an endowment established to foster a sense of shared purpose and positive interaction between archaeologists and Native Americans. Scholarships are open to all Native peoples from anywhere in the Americas, Alaska Natives, Native Hawaiians, and Indigenous Pacific Islanders. Four types of competitive scholarships are currently offered:

- SAA Arthur C. Parker Scholarship or NSF Scholarship for Archaeological Training
  To support archaeological training or a research program for Native American students or employees of tribal cultural preservation programs (up to $5,000).

- SAA Native American Undergraduate Archaeology Scholarship
  To support undergraduate studies for Native American students, including but not limited to tuition, travel, food, housing, books, supplies, equipment, and child care (up to $5,000).

- SAA Native American Graduate Archaeology Scholarship
  To support graduate studies for Native American students, including but not limited to tuition, travel, food, housing, books, supplies, equipment, and child care (up to $10,000).

Deadline: December 15
The George Melendez Wright Student Travel Scholarships
To apply for a George Melendez Wright Student Travel Scholarship, you must be: 1) A member of a minority ethnic, racial, or cultural group whose members have been underrepresented in the fields of natural and cultural resources as they relate to parks, protected areas, and cultural sites; 2) A resident of the USA, Canada, or Mexico; 3) A full-time junior, senior, or graduate student in a 4-year institution of higher education OR a student at any level, full- or part-time, enrolled in a 2-year Minority-serving Institution (including tribal colleges); 4) Currently enrolled and actively pursuing a degree; 5) Willing and able to pay for your travel costs up-front. Because of accounting regulations, the George Wright Society is unable to prepay any expenses for scholarship recipients. All scholarships will be disbursed by check in US dollars during the conference. Any bank charges related to the check are the recipient's responsibility. Deadline: December 31

Jim Edwards Sittichinli Scholarship
This scholarship was named after the Reverend Jim Edwards Sittichinli, a respected elder who committed much of his life to the land and wildlife. Depending on available funds and the number of applicants, the Gwich’in Renewable Resource Board usually awards two scholarships each year to students pursuing studies in renewable resources or related studies. Priority will be given to students of Gwich’in heritage. Qualifications: 1) Having a commitment to a career in renewable resources or related studies; 2) Being accepted to a renewable resource or related studies diploma or degree program; 3) Presenting 2 letters of reference (if already in ongoing program, one should be from the teacher); 4) Being a resident of the Gwich’in Settlement Area. Deadline: December 31

Note: Information in this document is subject to change.
Please contact award providers for up-to-date guidelines prior to submitting an application.

Updated December 14/15