Alliance Pipeline Aboriginal Student Awards Program
The scholarships are issued annually. The value of the scholarship varies based upon the number of qualified recipients. Preference is given to applicants attending post-secondary studies which will prepare them for employment in the oil and gas industry. Applicable programs include but are not limited to: Engineering; Instrumentation; Environmental Studies; Business Administration; Communications; and Finance. Alliance Pipeline reserves the right to determine the relevancy of the program. Eligibility: We welcome applications from students who are: 1) active members of an aboriginal community (band or settlement); 2) residents of British Columbia, Alberta or Saskatchewan; and 3) enrolled in, or have applied to, a technical school, college or university program. Deadline: July 1 (annually)

Andy Collins Memorial Scholarship
Applicant must: 1) be of Aboriginal ancestry within Zone II Métis Nation of Alberta regional boundaries; 2) be entering a field in one of the following areas: oil and gas, music or sports; 3) be entering or enrolled in a postsecondary educational institute; 4) demonstrate a financial need. Deadline: July 1 (annually)

National Union’s Scholarship Program – The Scholarship for Aboriginal Canadians
The Scholarship for Aboriginal Canadians for $1,500 is open to all Aboriginal Canadian students who plan to enter the first year of a Canadian public post-secondary education institution full-time in 2014-2015 and who are the children of, or foster children of, a National Union of Public and General Employees member. It will be awarded for the best 750-1,000 word essay on: The importance of quality public services in enhancing the quality of life of Aboriginal Canadians. Deadline: July 6 2016

National Union’s Scholarship Program – The Scholarship for Visible Minorities
The Scholarship for Visible Minorities for $1,500 is open to all visible minority students who plan to enter the first year of a Canadian public post-secondary education institution full-time in 2014-2015 and who are the children of, or foster children of, a National Union of Public and General Employees member. It will be awarded for the best 750-1,000 word essay on: The importance of quality public services in enhancing the quality of life of visible minorities. Deadline: July 6 2016

Jose Amaujaq Kusugak Scholarship
Jose Amaujaq Kusugak dedicated his life to Nunavut and the advancement of Inuit rights. His passion and dedication to education and the promotion and preservation of Inuit language enabled Inuit to make many strides. Nunavut Tunngavik Inc. (NTI) is ensuring Jose’s ability to inspire Inuit continues through post-secondary education by awarding two annual $5,000 scholarships to students pursuing post-secondary academic studies in the fields of education, Inuit language, or the advancement of Inuit rights. Deadline: July 9 (annually)
Inuvialuit Education Foundation
The Inuvialuit Education Foundation is established to provide educational assistance and encouragement to Inuvialuit students, without duplicating programs already available. Programs include financial assistance to Inuvialuit students attending University and College degree or diploma programs of a two year minimum duration, specifically identified one-year programs, the Scholarship program and a Tutoring Program for academic support. Deadlines: July 15 for September intake; November 15 for January intake; March 15 for Spring/Summer intake.

NWAC Helen Bassett Commemorative Student Award
Every year, the NWAC Youth Department coordinates the Helen Bassett Commemorative Award granted to four young Aboriginal women in the amount of $1,000 each. The awards are made possible by the generous donation of Helen Bassett. Helen Bassett was an Ontario artist and an amazing woman who tried to make a difference as an individual and engage the government into fair solutions to Aboriginal land claim issues. Awards are provided to 4 Aboriginal youth from each of the four directions as per NWAC’s cultural framework: North, South, East, and West. Applicants must: 1) Be currently pursuing post-secondary studies (priority is given to students who are studying law or are in a law related field); 2) Demonstrate financial need; 3) Be an Aboriginal woman under 30 years of age; 4) Demonstrate a commitment to improving the situation of Aboriginal women and youth in Canada politically, culturally, economically or otherwise. Deadline: July 10 (annually)

The Jim Bourque Scholarship
This scholarship honours the legacy of the late Hon. James W. Bourque, PC. To be eligible you must be: 1) Enrolled in post-secondary training in Education, Environmental Studies, Traditional Knowledge or Telecommunications; and 2) a Canadian Aboriginal student. To apply please submit: 1) a cover letter (please include an email address where we can contact you); 2) a description of your intended program of study and the reasons you chose the program, in 500 words or less; 3) official transcripts (most recent from college/university or high school); 4) a signed letter of recommendation from a community leader (e.g., Town or Band Council, Chamber of Commerce, Métis Local, etc.); 5) a statement of financial need which indicates funding already received or expected; 6) proof of enrolment in, or application to, a post-secondary institution; and 7) proof of Canadian Aboriginal descent. Deadline: Postmarked July 15

Chief George Kodakin Environment Scholarship
This scholarship is intended for a student of Dene descent entering or continuing post-secondary education in science, environment or resource management field. Award based on satisfactory academic performance, school and community involvement, and financial need. Deadline: July 15

Norman Taylor Memorial Bursary Program
Norman Taylor was a member of the Ucluelet First Nation on the West Coast of Vancouver Island. He was one of the founding members of the AFOA Canada serving as the founding President and later the Chief Advocacy Officer. There are four $1,000 bursaries to be awarded. Bursaries are open to AFOA members and non-members. Bursaries are available to First Nation, Inuit and Métis students attending university or college as a full-time student in an academic program such as Business Administration, Business Management, Accounting, Commerce and/or other finance related programs. Deadline: Please check website for deadline; normally in July
Harvey Bell Memorial Prize (for Native Graduates in Law)
This prize was established in memory of the late Harvey Bell, Q.C. It provides one or more awards up to $1,000 (at the discretion of the committee) to be paid each year, to one or more students of Native Canadian ancestry receiving his or her LL.B. degree in Canada. Mr. Bell practiced law in the City of North Battleford, Saskatchewan, for many years. During his lifetime he took a keen interest in Native people and their communities. In a variety of ways he sought to assist them. Deadline: July 31 (annually)

Roger Carter Scholarship Awards
This Scholarship was established by the Native Law Students Association of Canada in 1981. It provides four awards of $250 each, to be paid each year to students of Native Canadian ancestry entering second or third year of law school in Canada. This Scholarship is awarded in honour of Roger Carter, Q.C., founder of the Program of Legal Studies for Native People in 1973 and the Native Law Centre in 1975. The students receiving the awards are to be selected by a committee of Trustees of the Scholarship Trust Fund, made up of four Aboriginal law graduates and a representative of the University of Saskatchewan Native Law Centre. The criteria which the committee is to apply in arriving at its decision is as follows: 1) The students' academic record in his or her law studies; 2) The student's past and expected contribution to furthering the needs, concerns and aspirations of native people and their communities in Canada; 3) The student must be entering second or third year law. Deadline: July 31 (annually)

Dehcho First Nations Scholarships
In 1995 Dehcho First Nations Leadership established a scholarship program to support the development of our membership through education. Education and the pursuit of knowledge play a fundamental role in helping DFN membership reach their academic goals. By helping DFN membership fulfill their educational and vocational ambitions, we are helping to build stronger communities for our children. Scholarships are available for apprentices/trades people, college and university. See website for more details on the many awards available. Deadline: July 31 (annually)

Dehcho Land Use Planning Committee Scholarship Policy
The Dehcho Land Use Planning Committee is pleased to offer a $1,000 scholarship annually to a resident of the Dehcho Region who is enrolled in a program that will further their study and experience in the field of land management. Deadline: July 31 (annually)

NorthwesTel - Northern Futures Scholarship Program
NorthwesTel wants to invest in future Northwestel employees by awarding scholarships to northern students, providing Northwestel summer employment (gaining valuable work experience in their field of study), and offering permanent employment upon graduation. They provide six scholarships in the amount of $4000.00 each to northern residents across our operating area who are attending post secondary schools in Commerce/Business or who are pursuing post-secondary education in Engineering, Electrical/Telecommunications and Computer Sciences! The goal is to award at least three scholarships to Aboriginal students. The winners will be presented with a letter of offer guaranteeing them a position as a summer student for the upcoming summer. Deadline: July 31, 2016 by 4:00 PM (PST)

Note: Information in this document is subject to change.

Please contact award providers for up-to-date guidelines prior to submitting an application.

Updated May 17/16