Faculty of Law, University of Alberta

Students are responsible for the completeness and accuracy of their registration and for completion of the program requirements as outlined in the Academic Calendar. This document should be used for reference in course planning for application to the Juris Doctor degree in the Faculty of Law, University of Alberta here. Ultimately students need to check with the Faculty of Law to confirm their course selection is appropriate for application to their intended program. The information below is correct as of the date on the bottom.

Admission Requirements

1. An undergraduate degree, or at least the first three years (90 credits) of a program leading to a degree, at the University of Alberta, or from a university recognized by the University of Alberta, completed prior to the September in which admission is sought.
2. A valid LSAT score written within the 5 year period before the September of the year in which admission is sought. The last acceptable LSAT writing date for September admission is December of the previous year.
3. If English is not your first language you must meet the University of Alberta’s English language proficiency requirement.
4. A personal statement meeting the criteria set out in the application checklist.
5. A completed online application.

2 Year Applicant

In special circumstances the Committee will consider applications from applicants without a degree who have completed two years (60 credits), or equivalent, of a full program of studies that would be accepted for credit towards any degree at the University of Alberta. To be considered for admission in this manner, a candidate must demonstrate outstanding academic ability, which includes:
   1. a minimum GPA of 3.7 or its equivalent over the two years (60 credits) of study; and
   2. an LSAT score placing the applicant in the 90th percentile of those who have taken the LSAT test.

An applicant in this category must also satisfy requirements 3-5 listed above. Offers of Admission to two year applicants are conditional upon successful completion of enrolled credits.

Aboriginal Applicant

The requirements for Aboriginal applicants are listed here.
7.) Registration in these courses must be done using Bear Tracks. If you have questions about your course selection, please contact your Augustana Admissions Advisor.
