The Student Academic Information Launch (SAIL) is an orientation event that provides a great opportunity for new students to learn about Augustana, make new friends, and prepare for the challenges of university. Registration is not required for SAIL. All students new to Augustana will be automatically registered.

By the end of SAIL, you will have:
• Settled into your new home;
• Discovered campus and where your classes will be;
• Bonded with your floormates and made new friends throughout residence;
• Developed a personal and academic support network;
• Made connections with helpful resources.

Mandatory: All new students must attend SAIL from Monday, August 29 to Wednesday, August 31.

Questions? Please email sail@augustana.ca.

Schedule is subject to change. Revised: August 23, 2016

aug.ualberta.ca/welcometou
The Writing Centre

Writing Workshops

Writing in University: What Do I Need to Know?
Come to this hands-on workshop to learn proven strategies for making the transition to university-level writing. Whatever your major, this workshop offers a relaxed environment where you can practice techniques useful for all types of writing, from lab reports to research papers.

Date: Tuesday, September 20
Time: 6pm - 7:30pm
Location: H070, Hayme

Polishing Your Writing
What does it take to make your writing memorable to professors and peers? This workshop, which focuses on using language effectively and avoiding common mistakes, will provide you with simple techniques for making your writing stand out.

Date: Thursday, September 22
Time: 6pm - 7:30pm
Location: H070, Hayme

Workshop Registration
Workshops are free, but enrollment is limited, and you must register by signing up on the sign-up sheets outside of the Writing Centre (located in 1-140 and 1-142 in the Library).

http://aug.ualberta.ca/writingcentre