MBA “Core” First-Year Courses (30 credits)

- BUS 501 (*0)
- BUS 504 (*0) – Full-time students only
- ACCTG 501 – Introduction to Financial Reporting and Analysis
- ACCTG 523 – Accounting Information and Internal Decision Making
- BUEC 503 – Economic Foundations
- BUS 505 – Ethics and Corporate Social Responsibility with Communications
- FIN 501 – Managerial Finance
- MARK 502 – Principles of Marketing Management
- MGTSC 501 – Data Analysis and Decision Making
- SMO 500 – Managing People
- SMO 652 – Leadership Skills

One 3-credit MBA core elective which is chosen from:

- BUEC 542 – International Business
- OM 502 – Operations Management
- SMO 502 – Organization Strategy – Managing Organizations

Agricultural Requirements (15 credits):

- five 3-credit graduate-level electives in agricultural-related disciplines, to be approved by the graduate coordinator in the collaborating department of the Faculty of Agriculture, Life & Environmental Science (ALES)

Electives (15 credits):

- Three 3-credit MBA electives (9 credits)
- Two 3-credit graduate-level electives–MBA or ALES (6 credits)

MAg Project Requirement (3 credits):

- Project related to the agri-food industry with a significant business component

MBA Capstone (3 credits):

- SMO 641 (Business Strategy)

NOTES:

- Students are expected have their agriculture-related course selections approved by ALES. It is suggested that contact be made at a very early stage of the MBA/MAg program, to discuss possible course selection with the graduate coordinator in the coordinating department:

  - Renewable Resources: rrgrads@ualberta.ca
  - Resource Economics & Environmental Sociology: reesgrad@ualberta.ca