The Provost’s bursary was established to assist CILLDI in fulfilling its purpose of supporting individuals at the community level by providing basic training in linguistics, native languages, second language teaching, and other aspects of professional enhancement such as language-related research and policy making. The CILLDI Program will supply tools to Indigenous language activists so that they can better protect, preserve, promote, practice, and pass on their language.

The Bursary is funded by the University of Alberta’s Provost Office and will support individuals pursuing courses at CILLDI Summer School. Bursaries are intended for students registered in two 3-credit courses (one in Block I and one in Block II). U of A Provost’s Bursary applicants must complete the application form and submit it with a letter of support from a member of their community.

The Provost’s Bursary will cover:

- University of Alberta Open Studies application fee (if necessary)
- Tuition and fees for two 3-credit courses at the 2019 CILLDI Summer School
- A stipend of up to $800 for eligible expenses

Note: Also note, the University of Alberta can only support a limited number of students - take care to fill out this application form.

Application Process:

Submit the completed application form and a letter of support to the CILLDI Office by mail, email or fax. The letter of support must come from a member of your community (such as an Elder, education or culture director, tribal chief or councilor, Métis chair/president). This letter of support should focus on your commitment to the work you are doing or hope to do for your language.

We will not consider applications that do not have the letter of support.

Deadline: Wednesday, March 20, 2019
