

Academic Calendar – calendar.ualberta.ca

Academic Success Centre – Provides professional support to help students strengthen their academic skills and achieve their academic goals (previously known as the Student Success Centre). They work with pre-university, undergraduate, graduate and postdoctoral students, international students, parents, and university instructors and advisors to maximize students' success at all levels of achievement and study.

ualberta.ca/current-students/academic-success-centre

Accessibility Resources – Accessibility Resources promotes an accessible, inclusive, and universally designed environment at the University of Alberta. Individuals with documented disabilities are connected to the resources and supports needed to achieve their full potential. We serve prospective/current students, staff, and faculty with disabilities affecting mobility, vision, hearing, learning, and physical or mental health.

ualberta.ca/current-students/student-accessibility-services

Career Centre - The UofA Career Centre offers a variety of career services to University of Alberta undergraduate and graduate students, postdoctoral fellows, alumni and the University community. They can help students explore career options, connect with employers, write a resume, prepare for a job interview and find work.

ualberta.ca/career-centre/about-us

Centre for Teaching and Learning - CTL offers a wide range of programs and services to support teaching and learning. With the exception of the August Teaching Orientation, all CTL sessions and symposia are open to graduate students. The CTL Resource Library has a number of books, journals and videos on teaching and learning topics that can be borrowed by graduate students.

ualberta.ca/centre-for-teaching-and-learning

Centre for Writers – Offers free writing support to all students, staff and instructors on campus, in any subject or discipline, and at all levels of study.

ualberta.ca/current-students/centre-for-writers

Counselling and Clinical Services – Counselling and Clinical Services is a professional agency staffed by Licensed Psychologists and psychologists-in-training supervised by senior staff. It is part of the University Health Centre. The services are available to students currently enrolled at the University of Alberta, with a view to improving a student's personal, social, and academic well-being. There are no charges for their services with the exception of the therapy groups and workshops.

ualberta.ca/current-students/counselling

---

English Language School – The Faculty of Extension offers an English Language Program, various courses, and proficiency testing.

ualberta.ca/admissions-programs/english-language-school

Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research (FGSR) Community Volunteer

Program – FGSR Community Volunteer Program offers graduate students in the arts, sciences, and professional programs an opportunity to share their knowledge, experiences, and expertise with the community.

ualberta.ca/graduate-studies/professional-development/community-volunteer-program

Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research (FGSR) Professional Development – A graduate education is not just about advancing research. Your professional development is also a key part of building your future career. And making yourself competitive in the global market begins the day you arrive on campus. Graduate students can develop professional skills and qualities sought by employers through many U of Alberta resources. From cultivating a teaching portfolio to preparing for careers outside academia, there are sessions and workshops year-round to help you work towards creating a professional development footprint. This is not a requirement that you need to complete in your graduate program.

ualberta.ca/graduate-studies/professional-development

First Peoples' House – The First Peoples' House provides an environment of empowerment for First Nations, Métis, and Inuit (FNMI) learners to achieve personal and academic growth, including academic, financial, and cultural resources.

ualberta.ca/current-students/first-peoples-house

Graduate Students Association – The GSA is the student group that represents all graduate students at the University of Alberta. The GSA exists to help students on an individual and group level. It has four full-time staff members in addition to its elected executive positions filled by graduate students. The GSA has recently begun to offer a Graduate Student Assistance Program (GSAP) which provides all graduate students with 24/7 access to psychological counselling services, as well as access to a wide range of health, wellness and work life services. The GSA also provides emergency bursaries each year based on need.

ualberta.ca/graduate-students-association

ualberta.ca/graduate-students-association/services/graduate-student-assistance-program

Health and Wellness – This website is a directory of University health and wellness supports including Health Services, Mental Health Resources, Community Resources, Workshops & Training, and general Fitness & Wellbeing resources.

ualberta.ca/current-students/wellness

---

Interfaith Chaplains' Association - The Chaplains are available for guidance, care and support to any student or staff member, whether or not he or she identifies with a particular faith. They also offer information and referral regarding religious groups and activities on campus, as well as marriage preparation courses and assistance in memorial services.

ualberta.ca/current-students/interfaith-chaplains

International Student Services – Located at the International Centre, International Student Services is the main campus resource for international students seeking assistance with immigration as well as financial, academic, or personal issues.

ualberta.ca/international-student-services

Office of Safe Disclosure and Human Rights (OSDHR) – The Office is a safe, neutral and confidential space for the University of Alberta community to disclose concerns about how the University of Alberta policies, procedures or ethical standards are being applied. If you are not sure where to go about concerns such as safety violations, financial mismanagement, ethical concerns, discrimination or harassment, then our office is a great place to start.

ualberta.ca/vice-president-finance/audit-and-analysis/about-audit-and-analysis/office-of-safe-disclosure-and-human-rights

Office of the Student Ombuds – The Office of the Student Ombuds is a confidential service that strives to ensure that university processes related to students operate as fairly as possible. They offer information, advice, and support to students, faculty, and staff as they deal with academic, discipline, interpersonal, and financial issues related to student programs. The Office has dedicated resources for graduate students.

ualberta.ca/current-students/ombuds

Postdoctoral Office – They provide various supports and services facilitate and foster our Postdocs' research training and professional development to help prepare them for the next step in their careers. The Postdoctoral Office provides a central resource for our Postdocs, and serves as a liaison between postdocs, faculty, administrators, and staff. The website provides information related to current and prospective postdoc appointments, frequently asked questions, and links to information, services and supports that may be of interest.

ualberta.ca/research/support/post-doctoral-office

Scholarships, Awards and Financial Support - The Office of the Registrar administers a number of financial programs and emergency funding services.

ualberta.ca/registrar/Financial-Support.aspx

---

Student Conduct and Accountability – The primary function of Student Conduct and Accountability is to carry out the role of Discipline Officer under the Code of Student Behaviour (“the Code”), for both academic and non-academic misconduct. They promote awareness of the Code of Student Behaviour, compliance with the rules, and ethical behaviour. Student Conduct and Accountability receives recommendations for charges and sanctions under the Code from University of Alberta Protective Services in the case of non-academic misconduct, from Faculty Deans in cases of academic misconduct, and for charges and sanctions under the Code from Unit Directors, for incidents of Inappropriate Use of University Property and Resources.
ualberta.ca/provost/dean-of-students/student-conduct-and-accountability

Student Legal Services of Edmonton (SLS) - SLS is a student-managed, non-profit society dedicated to helping low-income individuals in Edmonton understand their legal issues and solve their legal problems. The services are offered by law student volunteers, and include advice on criminal and family law matters, as well as academic and discipline appeals.
<https://www.ualberta.ca/law/campus-life/student-legal-services>