Release for Student Art/Written Work

During the year, your child will be producing a variety of creative works that may be exhibited or published within the classroom of the Child Study Centre, the Education Building, in Centre publications or on the Child Study Centre website/blog. Your permission will be requested if your child’s work is to be displayed in any other location.

Release for Photographs/Media

1. Educational use: Audio and visual recordings including photographs, videos or other mechanical devices will be taken to document the children’s activities during the year so they can be shared with university students and colleagues. Such recordings are in the custody and control of the University of Alberta for its educational purposes relating to the children’s program.

☐ I agree
☐ I do not agree

2. Communications use: Photographs and videos may also be displayed in the classroom, in classroom communications to parents, on the Child Study Centre website, and/or on the Jr. Kindergarten blog. If a photo/video/etc. of your child is to be used for any other purpose, your permission will be requested.

Field Work and Other Outings

Children in the Junior Kindergarten will participate in field excursions for a number of purposes connected to project work and various learning activities. These may include excursions on the University of Alberta campus. Parent permission will be required for all off campus field excursions for a child to be able to accompany the class. Parents will be advised in writing of the travel arrangements for each off campus field excursion and of the number of accompanying supervisors.
