INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION
STUDENT ENGAGEMENT
SYMPOSIUM

Friday, February 3, 2017 – Fourth Floor Lounge, Education Centre North

8:30 - 9:15
The Importance and Challenges of Global Perspectives in Teaching
Keynote: Ali A Abdi, Educational Studies, University of British Columbia

9:15 - 10:30
Indigenous Knowledges and Colonial Histories: International Education in the Context of Being Canadian
Speakers: Dwayne Donald, Secondary Education, University of Alberta
Angelica Quesada, Educational Policy Studies, University of Alberta
Cora Weber-Pilwax, Educational Policy Studies, University of Alberta

10:30 - 10:45  Break

10:45 - 12:00
Global Perspectives in Education and Impact on Careers in or out of the Classroom
Speakers: Terry Godwalt, Teacher & Director, Centre for Global Education, Queen Elizabeth High School
Heather McPherson, Executive Director, Alberta Council for Global Cooperation
Thashika Pillay, Educational Policy Studies, University of Alberta

12:00 - 1:30
Lunch Exhibition Session: Exhibits
Consultations and other materials from: faculty members, staff, former student program participants, international school representatives and more.

1:30 - 2:15
Teaching Alberta Programs of Study Internationally in an Alberta Accredited School
Speakers: Jairo Garzon, Principal, Canadian International School, Guadalajara, Mexico
David Spreadbury, Canadian Affairs Liaison, the International School of Macao (TIS)
Elizabeth Jones, Former International AFX Participant at TIS

2:15 - 2:30  Break

2:30 - 4:00
Articulating the Impact of the Experience in their Personal and Professional Lives
Speakers: Participants of the First Global Citizenship Field Experience in Ghana Ten Years Ago

4:00 - 4:30
Closing Notes
Speaker: Lynette Shultz, Associate Dean, International, University of Alberta