Graduate Teaching and Learning Program
Consent Form for Teaching Observation

Date of Teaching Observation: ______________________________________________________

Instructor: ________________________________________________________________

Course: ________________________________________________________________

Observer: ________________________________________________________________

By signing below, I consent to having my teaching observed as part of the Mentorship component of the Graduate Teaching and Learning Program. The purpose of the observation is to allow participants of the GTL Program an opportunity to observe teaching and learning in the classroom, which may include interactions between the instructor and students, activities in the classroom, behaviours of the instructor, the classroom physical environment, and so forth; and to reflect on how this impacts student learning. Participants will be required to show they have completed their Peer Observation form to their teaching mentor or GTL Coordinator, and the information from the peer observation is to be confidential.

Name of Instructor __________________________ Signature of Instructor __________________________ Date __________________________

By signing below, I the observer consent to the use of my written observation to be included in the formal teaching dossier of the instructor. This may include the instructor using the observation as evidence of their teaching for professional or employment purposes, in addition to the GTL Program.
