As part of Graduate Teaching and Learning Weeks, the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research is hosting Lunch Hour Round Table Teaching Sessions.

Please bring your lunch and join graduates of the Graduate Teaching and Learning Program Level 3 Course (Winter 2017) in discussion about some of their favourite teaching and learning topics. These sessions will count towards the GTL Program and professional development credit.

Please RSVP for each round table you plan to attend. All sessions are free. Space is limited.
