Resources

One way that you can ensure the inclusion of your diverse workforce is to be aware of the days of celebration for various faith groups. This awareness can make sure that you can plan events, meetings and other activities to ensure the greatest participation of your teams. The Canadian Centre for Diversity and Inclusion creates an multifaith calendar every year. We have attached the 2019 versions along with this digest for your convenience. Please note, this is not an exhaustive list of holidays.
