This form must be used for exemption requests made by an individual under sections 6(2)(a) or (b) of the Public Sector Compensation Transparency Act, which read as follows:

- 6(2) The Minister may, in writing,
- (a) on application by an employee of the Government of Alberta, exempt the Government of Alberta from any part or all of the requirement to disclose under this act in respect of the employee if in the opinion of the Minister that disclosure could unduly threaten the safety of the employee;
 - (b) on application by a public sector body, or an employee or member of a public sector body, exempt the public sector body from any part or all of the requirement to disclose under this act in respect of an employee or member of the public sector body if in the opinion of the Minister that disclosure could unduly threaten the safety of the employee or member;

Note:

- An exemption can only be granted for reasons of personal safety.
- See the Exemption Policy and Process for instructions on how to complete this form and where to send it.
