Roderick McLennan graduated from the Faculty in 1958. He returned to the Faculty as a sessional lecturer and taught advocacy from 1978-1985. The leadership, commitment, and enthusiasm that he displayed as Co-Chair of Law Campaign 75, contributed greatly to its success. He is recognized internationally as a leading Canadian lawyer. Mr. McLennan is much sought after counsel, who has argued many times in the Supreme Court of Canada. Mr. McLennan has been a senior counsel for the Government of Alberta in a number of reference cases. He has also acted as commission counsel in a number of public inquiries.

Mr. McLennan's extensive community involvement includes membership on the President's Council of the University of Alberta, the President's Circle of the Edmonton Art Gallery, the Olympic Trust of Canada, the United Way, Grant MacEwan College, and the Alberta Foundation for Environmental Excellence.

Roderick A. McLennan, Q.C.

Roderick A. McLennan, recognized as a leading Canadian lawyer, co-chaired the successful Law Campaign 75.