The Honourable Justice Tevie H. Miller

The Hon. Justice Tevie Miller, Associate Chief Justice of the Court of Queen’s Bench (1984-1993), had a long association with the Faculty, beginning in 1950 when he received his LL.B. While at university, he was the Student Union President and later became President of the Alumni Association. Upon graduation, Justice Miller joined his father’s law firm, where he practised until his judicial appointment in 1974. Justice Miller taught advocacy and techniques of negotiation from 1978-1992. His love of teaching was evident and his courses were always over-subscribed. As Co-Chair of Law Campaign 75, he gave selflessly of his time to ensure the future of the Faculty. Justice Miller was Chancellor of the University of Alberta from 1986-1990 and in 1991 received an Honorary LL.D. from the university. His community involvement was extensive. He had a great love for both the arts and sports, and was a Director of both the Commonwealth Games in 1978 and the 1983 Universiade Games. Justice Miller died in August 1996 at the age of 68.

In 1997, the Friends of the Faculty of Law established the The Hon. Tevie H. Miller Teaching Excellence Award in his honour.

The Honourable Justice Tevie H. Miller, an excellent teacher and Co-Chair of Law Campaign 75, is recognized as a leader on the bench and in the community.
