The Hon. Justice Ellen Picard, of the Alberta Court of Appeal, received her LL.B. from the Faculty in 1967. She joined the Faculty in 1972 and served as its Associate Dean from 1974 to 1975 and again from 1980 to 1981. In 1977, Justice Picard established the internationally respected Health Law Institute at the Faculty. Justice Picard was appointed to the Court of Queen's Bench in 1986, and elevated to the Court of Appeal in 1995. The University of Alberta granted her Honorary Professorships in both Law and Medicine, and in 1992, Justice Picard received an Honorary LL.D. from the university. She has provided leadership in the area of judicial education. Among her many notable undertakings, Justice Picard was Vice-President of the Law Reform Commission of Canada and is the co-author of “Legal Liability of Doctors and Hospitals in Canada”.

The Health Law Institute organizes the annual Picard Health Law Lecture in Justice Picard’s honour.

The Honourable Justice Ellen I. Picard, member of the Court of Appeal, is a leader in legal scholarship, law reform, and judicial education.
