

Teaching Scholars Program (TSP)-International

TSP-I 06: Introduction to Health Professions Education Qualitative Research Methods

TSP-I 06 Overview

This course is an examination of contemporary research qualitative methodologies in the field of health professions educational (HPE) research. This course include didactic, interactive, and hands-on experiences. The intention of this course is to provide the groundwork necessary to pursue qualitative research in HPE research. All Scholars participating in the course will be required to participate in a qualitative research project that will be presented at the end of the course.

Course Pre-requisite: Successful completion of TSP 001
 Requirements: 10% release time to participate
 Attend at least 80% of all sessions

Co- Directors: Marghalara Rashid, PhD and Carol Hodgson, PhD

Session	TSP-I 06 Schedule*
1.	Couse introduction
2.	Mixed methods
3.	Data collection
4.	Introduction to ethnography
5.	Designing a qualitative study
6.	Data analysis and Coding
7.	Introduction to Narrative Inquiry
8.	NVivo -11 Sessions training
9.	Introduction to Grounded Theory
10.	Case Study
11.	Introduction to Phenomenology
12.	In Class Presentations Session

Required textbook: Creswell JW. Five Qualitative Approaches to Inquiry. In: Creswell JW. Qualitative inquiry and research design: Choosing among five approaches (2nd ed.). (2007). Thousand Oaks, CA: Sage. The text book can be found on amazon for $ 66.66.