

Laboratory Medicine and Pathology
GRAF Policy

The Graduate Research Assistantship Funds are available to Laboratory Medicine and Pathology graduate students who hold no awards as of September 1. Students must submit an application declaring that they meet the eligibility requirement.

Awards include those which are internal as well as external to the University of Alberta. They do not include prizes or travel awards.

The funds will be divided equally among all eligible applicants.

August 2016