Faculty Updates

Want research volunteer experience? Participate online, anywhere!

We are looking for students and trainees who are interested in being part of cutting edge research, to contribute to the production of a Living Systematic Review. A Living Systematic Review is a novel approach to continuous Systematic Review updating, using new technology and crowdsourcing (citizen scientists, like you!)

Why participate?
- Gain research experience!
- Receive a certificate of training in Systematic Review tasks!
- Increase your knowledge about Systematic Reviews!
- Be part of an online community whose collective effort has the potential to enhance clinical practice!

If you are interested in finding out more about this research study see promo and visit us online.

Contact lsrsstudy@ualberta.ca for more information.
