Biostatistics 101
An Introduction & Application to Research

Dr. Rhonda Rosychuk (Professor in Pediatrics and Director of the Biostatistics Consulting Group at the University of Alberta) will provide a brief introduction to biostatistics and discuss how she has applied different methods to a variety of areas in clinical, population and health outcomes research.

This session will be geared to those with a beginner-to-intermediate level of knowledge and expertise with biostatistics.

Monday, September 18th, 2017
2:00 – 3:00pm
WMC Classroom D (2F1.04)