Centre for Teaching and Learning (CTL)
The programs and resources below have been developed for University Faculty, Staff, and Graduate Students. Graduate Students are welcome to participate in CTL events.

- Teaching and Learning Events (symposia, visiting speakers):

- Teaching and Support Services (course consultation services; ongoing workshops):

- Instructional Resources (e.g. teaching dossiers, eClass tips):

- eClass SUPPORT: https://support.ctl.ualberta.ca/index.php?/Core/Default/Index
Centre for Writers

Offers one-on-one writing support to all students, instructors, and staff in all faculties.

- For instructors and TAs (class visits from Centre for Writers staff, help with clarity of assignments): http://c4w.ualberta.ca/for-instructors-and-tas.aspx

- Resources (for yourself or your students; e.g. “writing concisely”, “quoting, paraphrasing, and summarizing”, “strategies for self-editing”): http://c4w.ualberta.ca/resources.aspx

Student Success Centre

Provides professional support to help undergraduate and graduate students strengthen their academic skills (e.g. study skills, exam writing, paper writing, and time management)

- Information for Instructors: http://www.studentsuccess.ualberta.ca/FacultyInstructorsAdvisors.aspx

- Workshops: http://www.studentsuccess.ualberta.ca/Workshops.aspx

Liaison Librarian for FPER

Each Faculty has a Liaison Librarian. This person will work with you to develop course resources and help your students access research materials.

- FPER Librarian Liaison: Allison Sivak (Allison.sivak@ualberta.ca; 780-492-1469)

- What your Liaison Librarian can offer: http://lgdata.s3website-us-east-1.amazonaws.com/docs/505/285932/lias-librarian(final).pdf

Community Service Learning (CSL) Program

The Community Service Learning Program connects instructors and students with community partners. The students complete service learning in the community as part of their course requirements. The CSL office must be contacted with enough time before a course starts to assist with community partnerships.

Society for Teaching and Learning in Higher Education (STLHE)

- http://www.stlhe.ca/

- Hosts the largest annual conference in Canada focused on teaching in higher education
