CHEEP INFORMATION FOR THE MONTH OF:
FEBRUARY 2017

THEME:  COMMUNITY HELPERS

STORIES OF THE MONTH:
1. “The Little Red Hen” (Val’s story week)
2. “Forgetful the Firefighter” (Bradie, SLP student)
3. “Friends and Feelings” discussions (social-emotional curriculum): A variety of books dealing with emotions (Val’s week)
4. “Officers on Patrol” by Kersten Hamilton (Bradie)
5. "Going on an Airplane" by Jamie Maschmeyer

DRAMATIC PLAY: Throughout the 4 weeks of February we will be setting up a gross motor play area, a bakery, a fire and police station, a mini-gym, hair salon, and flower shop, traffic police obstacle course, a doctor’s office and an airport.

FINE MOTOR FOCUS: We have a number of activities such as cutting the wheat we grew and a hair salon to practice our scissor skills.

GROSS MOTOR FOCUS: In addition to practicing skills in all areas of physical development we will be emphasizing activities that help us practice jumping.

OTHER CENTRES: We have an assortment of puzzles for different skill levels, various games and a focus on geometric shapes at our playdough centre.

OTHER NEWS:
*Our student, Bradie will be finished her placement the first week of March. She has read two of our stories this month and will lead our cooking project: Firehose Pasta!
*Our newsletters are now posted online. Please visit the department website (Department of Communication Sciences and Disorders) and follow the links to CHEEP.
