CHEEP INFORMATION FOR THE MONTH OF:
MARCH 2017

THEME: ANIMALS - PETS

STORIES OF THE MONTH:
1. “Giant Pop-Out Pets”, by Amelia Powers (Sandra/Jamie)
2. “The Pout Pout Fish”, by Deborah Diesen, Dan Hanna (read by Val)
3. TBA (theme-related SLP student choice)
4. No story - Spring Break

DRAMATIC PLAY: Throughout the 3 weeks of March we will have a gross motor area set up in the main room along with a vet clinic and/or pet store.

FINE MOTOR FOCUS: Tactile input and visual perception skills will be targeted during relevant daily activities.

GROSS MOTOR FOCUS: In addition to practicing skills in all areas of physical development we will be emphasizing activities that build balance and stability.

OTHER CENTRES: We have a music/dance station to dance with stuffies, an obstacle course for pets on leashes, a Fisher Price manipulative pet grooming play set, water and pets to wash in the touch table, pet-related activities at the math station and pet-related games and puzzles!

OTHER NEWS:
We say good-bye to Bradie, our SLP student on March 3\textsuperscript{rd} and say hello to our new student, Karla, on March 6\textsuperscript{th}.
