Lab Technician/Aquatics Facility Manager Job Description:

- Casual Employee
  - 40 hours/week
  - 1 year position
  - Start Date: May 1st 2017

- Qualifications:
  - Recently graduated or soon-to-be graduated (by April of 2017) undergraduate student who is interested in working in a research setting.
  - Should have some research experience (preferably one of the following: 298, 299, 398, 399, 498, or 499)

- Job Description:
  - There are two facets of this job:
    1. Managing a Zebrafish Aquatics Research Facility:
      a. Feeding zebrafish
      b. Maintaining zebrafish lines
      c. Maintenance of facility equipment
    2. Assisting Graduate Students with Their Research:
      a. Genotyping mutant zebrafish strains using PCR, HRM and DNA Sequencing
      b. Generating zebrafish mutants using CRISPR/Cas9 technology
      c. Variety of other tasks related to lab work (possibility of taking on your own research project)

- Contact Information:
  - Please send a resume/CV and a copy of your transcript to miryam@ualberta.ca if you are interested in applying for the position.