Course goals:

to introduce to the basic ideas of the asymptotic and perturbation analyses via intuitive and physically motivated examples, and then to build up a coherent methodology for solving research-type problems.

Topics to be covered:

Course Prerequisites:
MATH 438 or equivalent.

Course grading:
- 50% Homework
- 20% Midterm Exam
- 30% Final Exam

Suggested readings: