WELCOME BACK!

Fr. Jim Stenberg CSB
And welcome to the newly formatted Chapel Bulletin. The old templates were, sadly, lost during the transition between Fr. Glenn and me. Many thanks to Danica Wolitski for providing this crisp, attractive replacement. Most of our former programs are continuing this year, although the Children's liturgy during the 11:00 am mass is temporarily on hiatus due to lack of volunteers...

FROM THE ARCHDIOCESE

The Bishops of Alberta and the NWT have responded to the Pennsylvania abuse report with a pastoral letter. The letter can be found online at caedm.ca under the “News & Events” heading on the left side of the page. Its title is “We share your pain and anguish.”

OUR DAILY BREAD

Outside St. Joseph's Chapel are small booklets of short daily reflections published by Our Daily Bread Ministries Canada©. Here is the first part of Sunday's reflection:

Hot and dusty. Bob dismounted from the bus he had ridden to a city far from home. He was tired from a long day of travel and grateful that he would be able to have dinner with friends of friends who lived in the area. They welcomed him in, and he immediately felt a sense of peace. He felt at home, comfortable, safe, and valued.

ALPHA

Tuesdays (Sept 11 - Nov 27) – 5:00 - 6:30 pm – SJC Boardroom
Alpha is a series of interactive sessions that explores the basics of the Christian faith. Each session will include a meal, music, a short 20-minute video and a chance for discussion. This is the perfect place to ask questions regarding your faith – at Alpha, there are no "stupid" questions. Alpha is geared for believers and non-believers alike, everyone is welcome.
