Section 6: Community Engagement Plan

Using only the space provided, outline your Community Engagement Plan.

Below are outlined some of the basic expectations of QE II Scholars (which you can include in your Community Engagement Plan):

1. Faculty specific conferences, talks, presentations;
2. QES Scholarship recipients will be asked to be available for mentorship to other / future QES recipients;
3. You will be invited to submit a proposal for presentation during International Week.

In addition to the above, QE II Scholarship recipients are encouraged to consider other ideas. For example:

1. Are you currently engaged in community organizations here in Edmonton?
2. Are you part of a student club (SIHA for example)?
3. Are you conducting any research through your studies that is Canada focused?
4. Do you have an idea on how to link your international experience to needs in Canada?

Section 7: Supporting Documents

You must submit the following supporting documents along with your application electronically.

1. Unofficial Transcripts: Unofficial transcripts of ALL completed postsecondary coursework at the University of Alberta.

Submit transcripts as scanned PDFs via email. Jpegs will not be accepted.

UAlberta Transcripts

Unofficial transcripts can be printed from Beartracks—you may need to wait for Winter Term grades to be posted for your most recent term. Do not submit official transcripts or statements of results.

2. Letter (or Email) of Support from Faculty
3. Letter (or Email) of Admission / Support from International Host Institution / Organization
4. Letter of Support from Canadian Community Engagement Host (if applicable)
5. QES Scholar PreDeparture Form - Canadian 2016
