Fair dealing is an important right for all Canadians.

Fair Dealing: How fair is it?
Speakers with acknowledged expertise in their respective areas share diverse perspectives on applying fair dealing and on what constitutes fairness in the current Canadian context.

Opening Remarks: Gerald Beasley, Vice-Provost, Learning Services and Chief Librarian, University of Alberta (UofA)
Moderator: Adrian Sheppard, Director, UofA Copyright Office

Fair Dealing Analysis
This workshop offers practical guidance in fair dealing analysis relevant to post-secondary education. Through case studies, participants will explore the range of elements and considerations involved in applying CCH’s six factors.

Where do we go from here? Exploring the boundaries of fair dealing.
A conversation that looks ahead to the upcoming Copyright Act review and considers the political, legal and educational atmosphere surrounding fair dealing. How might the post-secondary community promote and support fair dealing for the betterment of all Canadians?
Moderator: Amanda Wakaruk, Copyright Librarian, UofA Copyright Office

RSVP/registration requested at copyright.ualberta.ca

Design adapted from ARL / YIPPA promotional material, CC BY, fairuseweek.org