Dear Neighbour,

Thank you for attending this evening’s final open house to review materials associated with sector planning for the Devonian Botanic Garden. Your participation is appreciated.

All information that you have seen this evening will be on the University of Alberta, Office of University Relations website located at www.communityrelations.ualberta.ca. Comments will be accepted until June 16, 2015.

In an effort to meet the sustainable principles of the University of Alberta, all information regarding the sector plan for the Devonian Botanic Garden will be posted on the above site. We would ask that you use this as your first stop for information. If you do not have access to a computer, please contact the following office and the digital information will be printed and mailed to you.
