Recyclable plastics include:

Plastics contaminated with chemicals and/or biological waste must be cleaned and decontaminated before being placed in the recycling bin.

- Pipette tip holder and box
- Large & small conical tubes
- Plastic lab bottle
- Air pillows
- Clear plastic packaging

Recyclable plastics include: 1 2 4 5

Plastics contaminated with chemicals and/or biological waste must be cleaned and decontaminated before being placed in the recycling bin.
Under no circumstance is plastic contaminated with radioisotope hazards to enter the recycle stream.

Non-recyclable plastics include:
- Multi-well plates
- Packing peanuts
- Conical tube lids
- Freezer pack
- White tray
- Mixed material packaging
- Pipette and pipette tips
- Petri dish
- Autoclave waste
- Mixed material packaging

Do not recycle

uab.ca/zero