Message from the 2018 CUSA Planning Committee

WELCOME

Welcome to the 32nd annual College and University Safety Association (CUSA) 2018 Conference which is dedicated to occupational health and safety (OHS) in post-secondary institutions.

We are pleased to offer conference attendees speakers from across Alberta, vendor booths, a tour of Rogers Place – a state of the art arena and home of the NHL’s Edmonton Oilers, as well as plenty of opportunities to network.

This year’s conference is focused on embracing change. The only thing constant is change. We know and understand that our environment can't stay the same forever. All around us, there is change happening daily. We are forever growing, expanding, aging and changing. Embracing change in the workplace is key to success and happiness.

Many thanks to the sponsors, delegates, and volunteers who make this conference a success.

Sincerely,

The 2018 CUSA Planning Committee:
