Navigating International Research Opportunities in Times of Global Change

Symposium at the University of Alberta
Maple Leaf Room, Lister Hall
2 May 2019

8:15-9:00 am Registration and refreshments
9:00-9:20 am Traditional Welcome and Blessing: Gilman Cardinal
Introductions: Matthias Ruth, vice-president (research)
9:20-9:30 am Opening remarks: David Turpin, president and vice-chancellor, University of Alberta
9:30-10:20 am Keynote Address: Paul Davidson, president and CEO, Universities Canada
10:20-10:45 am Networking break
10:45 am-noon Panel 1: Ethics, law and policy
Moderator: Douglas Stollery, chancellor, University of Alberta
Panelists: Gordon Houlden, director, China Institute, University of Alberta
Erasmus Okine, vice-president (research), University of Lethbridge
Penny Pexman, professor of psychology and associate vice-president (research), University of Calgary
Noon-1:00 pm Lunch and networking break
1:00-2:15 pm Panel 2: Data in the international context
Moderator: Gail Murphy, vice-president (research & innovation), University of British Columbia
Panelists: Kathryn Anthonisen, vice-president external relations, CANARIE
Catherine Gebotys, professor of electrical and computer engineering, University of Waterloo
Deb Verhoeven, professor of women's and gender studies and digital humanities, University of Alberta
2:15-2:45 pm Networking break
2:45-4:00 pm Panel 3: Dual-use research
Moderator: Lorne Babiuk, past vice-president (research), University of Alberta
Panelists: Kevin Haggerty, professor of criminology and sociology, University of Alberta
Brigitte Leblon, professor of remote sensing, University of New Brunswick
André McDonald, professor of mechanical engineering, University of Alberta
4:00-4:30 pm Synthesis: Anne Naeth, professor of land reclamation and restoration ecology and Geoffrey Rockwell, professor of philosophy and digital humanities, University of Alberta
4:30-5:30 pm Reception: Cash bar available and music by UAlberta student string trio - The Trio Amigos (Amelia Moser, Allison Lee, and Laura Wakeman)