5. Proposal for an Embedded Certificate in Biomedical Research, Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry

Materials before members are contained in the official meeting file.

Presenter: Fraser Brenneis, Vice-Dean (Education), Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry

Purpose of the Proposal: To establish an embedded credit Research Certificate in Biomedical Research offered by the Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry. To establish formal recognition of the many research experiences in biomedical sciences which are available to undergraduate students at the University of Alberta.

Discussion:
Dr Brenneis thanked members of GFC ASC Subcommittee on Standards (SOS) for their careful, preliminary review of this proposal. He provided members with a brief summary of the proposal, noting that the departments listed in it offer an extensive amount of teaching and that the students within these departments conduct a substantial amount of research and that this certificate program aims to recognize these students for such endeavors.

During the discussion in regards to this proposal, members expressed a number of comments and questions, including, but not limited to: support for this proposal; that Alberta School of Business students would welcome the opportunity to participate in this certificate; that the timeline of the certificate is problematic for students in Augustana Faculty; a suggestion for an editorial amendment to the Calendar copy.

Motion: Causgrove Dunn/Kav

6. Proposal to Suspend Admission to Dental Hygiene diploma program, Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry

Materials before members are contained in the official meeting file.

Presenter(s): Fraser Brenneis, Vice-Dean (Education), Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry; Sharon Compton, Associate Chair/Director, Dental Hygiene, Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry

Purpose of the Proposal: The proposed suspension of the Dental Hygiene diploma program is part of the School of Dentistry’s Curriculum Redesign project. The diploma curriculum has expanded over many years without any increase in the length of study resulting in an extremely heavy load for students. The proposal outlines the need to suspend the Dental Hygiene diploma and describes how the curriculum will be redistributed over three years as part of the Bachelor of Science (Dental Hygiene Specialization) program.

Discussion:
Dr Compton explained that the proposal aims to suspend the two year dental hygiene diploma program, adding that the intensity of this program has increased over the years but that the length of time for this program has not changed. She stated that this has resulted in feedback from students that this is an extremely challenging program to undertake, due to the increased content. She reported that there is a fourth year for this program already in existence, to allow students to earn a degree. She stated that data supports the fact that students are enrolling in this extra fourth year to earn the Bachelor of Science (Dental Hygiene Specialization). She noted that this also better aligns shared learning experiences with other students in the Department of Dentistry.

Dr Brenneis noted one minor change to the proposal regarding the proper application deadline and another regarding a minor detail which was inadvertently omitted in the Calendar copy.
During the discussion in regards to this item, members expressed a number of comments and questions, including, but not limited to: support for this proposal; that this proposal allows students more time to study and enjoy campus life.

Motion: Ross/Madill

7. Proposal to revise English Language Proficiency requirement for applicants to Bridging Programs, Faculty of Extension

Materials before members are contained in the official meeting file.

Presenter: Lihong Yang, Assistant Registrar (Admissions)

Purpose of the Proposal: To increase the English Language Proficiency requirement for admission to Bridging programs by modification to the IELTS and Internet-based TOEFL (iBT) band score. Based on analysis of new students in 2012 and 2013, the Office of the Registrar found a positive correlation between success in the required English for Academic Purposes courses and higher IELTS overall and band scores for students in the Bridging Program.

Discussion:

Ms Yang provided members with a summary of this proposal, noting that it is evidenced-based and that it aims to establish minimum band score requirements for admission in relation to both IELTS and TOEFL. She noted that going forward, the Office of the Registrar will work closely with the Faculties to gather data in relation to students enrolled in degree programs.

The Chair noted that the name of the English Language Program has been changed to the English Language School. She also pointed out that the English Language School will no longer be conducting the IELTS.

During the extensive discussion surrounding this proposal, members expressed a number of comments and questions, including, but not limited to: support for this proposal as a starting point to address the broad and very timely issue of English language proficiency across the University of Alberta; concern that this proposal does not go far enough; that the data suggests that this will only impact a few students; that most students meet the average due to higher scores on the listening and reading bands, but not necessarily on the writing band, which is problematic in a university setting; that the University of Alberta’s minimum band scores are not in line with other large research-intensive institutions and that more needs to be done; that this issue is very crucial and that instructors are being forced to change their standards to accommodate the students who are not fluent in English; that this is not fair to domestic students enrolled in courses; that this is a large issue which impacts the University’s reputation; that the University’s recent approach to recruiting international students has been driven by financial necessity and that more has to be done to get the academy up to standards; that there is huge potential for cheating on these exams; that poor proficiency in written English can lead to discipline problems; that both written and spoken English skills are important for all students in the Alberta School of Business, because of the amount of team projects within the Faculty courses; that students panic and make choices which can lead to academic discipline issues, and that this is not fair to students, instructors, and other students in the classes; that there is a high financial and emotional cost to admitting students who do not possess adequate English skills; that international students lacking adequate English skills also suffer in the appeal hearings; that this also negatively impacts relationships with clinical partners, for students participating in clinical placements as part of their program; a suggestion to remove stage one altogether; support for this proposal and that this is a step forward; that some courses offer extra assistance for students through Teaching Assistants, and that there have been instances where there is preferential treatment expressed towards assisting international students over domestic students; an instance of an instructor allowing students to write an exam in Chinese; whether there is a way to identify which students are coming through the English Language School versus those who enter at the Faculty level.

The Chair noted that this item should come before the Committee again for further discussion and possible additional action.

A member suggested creating a separate working group to examine this issue further. The Chair noted that Ms Melissa Padfield, Deputy Registrar, will keep this item before the Committee.
