Alignment/Compliance

Alignment with Guiding Documents

- For the Public Good, Comprehensive Institutional Plan, Institutional values

Compliance with Legislation, Policy and/or Procedure Relevant to the Proposal (please quote legislation and include identifying section numbers)

1. Post-Secondary Learning Act (PSLA): The PSLA gives GFC responsibility, subject to the authority of the Board of Governors, over academic affairs. Further, the PSLA gives the Board of Governors authority over certain admission requirements and rules respecting enrolment of students to take courses.

   2. PSLA

      "29(1) A faculty council may:

      (c) provide for the admission of students to the faculty, (d) determine the conditions under which a student must withdraw from or may continue the student’s program of studies in the faculty […] subject to any conditions or restrictions that are imposed by the general faculties council.

3. GFC ASC Terms of Reference (Mandate of the Committee)

   “D. Alberta Transfer Guide

   i. ASC approves, for inclusion in the Alberta Transfer Guide, courses for transfer credit to the University of Alberta which are offered by non-University institutions in Alberta. Approval will be based upon an assessment of course content and level of instructor qualifications.

   ii. ASC denies courses for transfer credit to the University of Alberta which are offered by non-University institutions in Alberta.

   iii. ASC monitors the entries in the Alberta Transfer Guide relevant to the University of Alberta.

   iv. ASC rescinds, if necessary, the entries in the Alberta Transfer Guide relevant to the University of Alberta.”

4. UAPPOL Transfer Credit Articulation Procedure (Overview and Procedure): “The University of Alberta will accept for transfer credit the courses recommended by Faculties and approved by ASC for inclusion in the Alberta Transfer guide, to the extent that the courses fit the degree program that the student wishes to enter. Credit for such courses will be considered in a credit-no credit basis only and will not be included in the University grade point average calculation on the University transcript. Faculties may have other requirements…Transfer credit is assessed on an individual course-by-course basis for by a block transfer agreement.”

5. GFC Academic Standards Committee Terms of Reference (Mandate of the Committee)

   “A. Definitions
i. “Routine and/or Editorial
[...] the term “routine and/or editorial” refers to proposals which do not involve or affect other Faculties or units; do not form part of a proposal for a new program; and which do not involve alteration of an existing quota or establishment of a new quota. Editorial or routine changes include any and all changes to the wording of an admissions or academic standing policy.
[...] B. Admission and Transfer, Academic Standing, Marking and Grading, Term Work, Examinations, International Baccalaureate (IB), Advanced Placement (AP)
i. All proposals from the Faculties or the Administration related to admission and transfer, to the academic standing of students, to institutional marking and grading policies and/or procedures and to term work policies and procedures are submitted to the Provost and Vice-President (Academic) (or delegate) who chairs the GFC Academic Standards Committee. ASC will consult as necessary with the Faculties and with other individuals and offices in its consideration of these proposals.

ii. ASC acts for GFC in approving routine and/or editorial changes to both admission/transfer policies and academic standing regulations”

3. UAPPOL Admissions Policy: “Admission to the University of Alberta is based on documented academic criteria established by individual Faculties and approved by GFC. This criteria may be defined in areas such as subject requirements, minimum entrance averages, and language proficiency requirements. In addition to academic requirements for admission, GFC authorizes each Faculty to establish such other reasonable criteria for admission of applicants as the Faculty may consider appropriate to its programs of study, subject to the approval of GFC (e.g. interview, audition, portfolio, etc.).

The admission requirements for any Faculty will be those approved by GFC as set forth in the current edition of the University Calendar. In addition to the admission requirements, selection criteria for quota programs, where they exist, will also be published in the current edition of the University Calendar.

The responsibility for admission decisions will be vested in the Faculty Admission Committees or in the Deans of the respective Faculties, as the councils of such Faculties will determine.”

4. UAPPOL Admissions Procedure:

“PROCEDURE

1. EFFECTIVE DATE OF CHANGES TO ADMISSION REGULATIONS
Following approval by GFC:

a. Where changes to admission regulations may disadvantage students in the current admission cycle, normally implementation will be effective after the change has been published in the University Calendar for one full year (i.e., effective the second year that the information is published in the University Calendar).

For example, a change approved in May 2005 would be first published in the 2006-2007 University Calendar in March 2006. Therefore the statement cannot come into effect until September 2007 (affecting applicants who apply for the September 2007 term beginning July 2006).

b. Where changes to admission regulations are deemed by the approving body to be ‘advantageous to students’, normally the date of implementation will be effective immediately or at the next available intake for the admitting Faculty.”

5. PSLA: The PSLA gives Faculty Councils the authority to “determine the conditions under which a student must withdraw from or may continue the student’s program of studies in a faculty” (Section 29(1)(d)).

6. UAPPOL Academic Standing Policy: “All current academic standing regulations, including academic standing categories, University graduating standards and requirements for all individual programs will be those prescribed by Faculty Councils and GFC as set forth in the University Calendar.”

7. UAPPOL Academic Standing Regulations Procedures: “All proposed new academic standing regulations and changes to existing academic standing regulations will be submitted by the Faculties or the Administration to the Provost and Vice-President (Academic). Faculties will also submit to the Provost and Vice-President (Academic) any proposed changes to the use and/or computation of averages relating to academic standing, including promotion and graduation.

If the Provost and Vice-President (Academic) determines the proposal to be in good order, the proposal will be introduced to the appropriate University governance process(es). In considering these proposals, governance bodies will consult as necessary with the Faculties and with other individuals and offices.

Normally, changes become effective once they are approved by GFC or its delegate and are published in the University Calendar.”

Justification: This removes the mandatory requirement for all students entering an Augustana BS, Music, or B.Mus program to complete the Music Theory Placement Exam. Students will only be required to complete an exam if they desire to be exempt from AUMUS 100 – students who recognize their need for a better Music Theory foundation in preparation for a Music program can register in AUMUS 100 without having to take the Placement exam.

| Regulations of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research

Doctoral Degrees

Program Requirements

A doctoral degree is awarded upon successful completion of a doctoral degree program. All departments are responsible for developing and publishing a clear statement of all program requirements to be completed by the student in addition to the thesis. These requirements will vary from department to department, but will likely include a number of required and optional course requirements, the academic integrity and ethics requirement, a candidacy examination requirement, and in some disciplines, written comprehensive examinations.

All program requirements, other than the thesis, must be completed within three years of the commencement of a student's program. For students who change from a master's program to a doctoral program, the counting of time runs from the beginning of the student's second year in the master's program. For part-time doctoral students who change to a full-time doctoral program, or who remain as part-time doctoral students throughout the program, the department will determine the appropriate time period. The three-year rule does not apply to doctoral programs offered by the Departments of Educational Psychology, English and Film Studies, and Philosophy; nor to the doctoral program in Medical Sciences (Orthodontics) offered by the Department of Dentistry: students in these programs must consult the published department specific regulations. For doctoral students in individualized interdisciplinary programs, the time limit for the completion of all program requirements, other than the thesis, must be specified in the individualized program proposal. For all doctoral programs, the time limit for completion remains six years.

Doctoral Program Three-year Progress Requirement

All program requirements, other than the thesis, must be completed within three years of the commencement of a student's program. Students who change from a master's program to a doctoral program, without the need to complete the master's program as part of an acceleration or fast-track, have four years to complete the doctoral program progress requirements from the term of initial registration in the master's program. For part-time doctoral students who change to a full-time doctoral program, or who remain as part-time doctoral students throughout the program, the department will determine the appropriate time period. The three-year rule does not apply to doctoral programs offered by the Departments of Educational Psychology, English and Film Studies, and Philosophy; nor to the doctoral program in Medical Sciences (Orthodontics) offered by the Department of Dentistry: students in these programs must consult the published department specific regulations. For doctoral students in individualized interdisciplinary programs, the time limit for the completion of all program requirements, other than the thesis, must be specified in the individualized program proposal. For all doctoral programs, the time limit for completion remains six years.

Justification: Adding a header for the Doctoral Program Requirements. The sentence on students who change from master's program is clarification of the original statement as the original had been causing problems.

change to the courses available. Active students will be able to finish their studies and receive the Bachelor of Arts in the major that they were admitted into or have the option of switching to the new MLCS program. Assuming the program is approved in time to accept applications for the 2019/2020 academic year, students enrolled in the suspended majors would be asked to complete all program requirements by April 30, 2024.

No adverse impact is anticipated for graduates of these programs. The degrees alumni in these majors have earned are valid and official documentation continues to be available.

SECTION A: PROGRAM SUSPENSION

SECTION 1: RATIONALE

1.1 Identify the purpose for the suspension with supporting rationale and evidence (e.g., low student demand, declining labour market demand, institutional capacity, need for program redevelopment, quality assurance review recommendation, etc.).

The rationale for suspending the combined major in French and Spanish in the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies is that the department proposes to consolidate all currently existing major programs into one single major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies. The proposed new major will provide a more interdisciplinary approach to the teaching of languages, literatures, and cultures, allow students to engage with more than one area of the Students who wish to focus on French and Spanish in the new major will be able to do so in the proposed MLCS major.

The proposed suspension and ultimate termination of the combined major in French and Spanish is a necessary administrative step.

1.1.1 Document enrolments (by FLE and headcounts) for the most recent 5-year period, including the current academic year if available.

1.1.2 Indicate when admissions into program/specialization will be or were closed.

Subject to government approval, the proposed major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies will be available for students in Fall 2019. At that point, there will be no further admission to the combined major in French and Spanish. Active students who entered the combined major in French and Spanish prior to September 2019 will be taught out and able to finish their studies in the current program and receive their Bachelor of Arts. They would be asked to complete all program requirements by April 30, 2024 and the last degree with a combined major in French and Spanish will be granted at Spring Convocation 2024. If any active students in the initial stages of the combined major in French and Spanish would like to switch to the new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies, they may opt to do so and follow the requirements of the new major.

1.1.3 Explain how the proposed end date of the suspension was determined.
The proposed end date is dependent on the approval of the MLCS major. We hope that the suspension of the current majors will be implemented by July 1, 2019 with a proposed end date (dependent on government approvals) of June 30, 2024. This allows students who enrolled in the combined major in French and Spanish before Sept. 2019 to finish their degree. At the end date of the suspension, the combined major in French and Spanish will be terminated.

1.1.4 Provide specific information about which internal governance body approved the suspension, and provide date of approval. (Attach copy of minutes or motions.)

On May 25, 2017 Arts Faculty Council (AFC) approved the proposed MLCS major and the suspensions of all current majors (item 13.1, see attached minutes).

1.2 Check the applicable box to specify the longer-term plan.

☑ To terminate the program.

☐ To reactivate the program.

SECTION 2: ACCESS

2.1 Identify potential student access considerations and risks for Campus Alberta that the suspension of this program could pose (include both (a) information about related programs available to prospective students internally at your institution; and (b) externally at other Alberta institutions).

Students will be able to focus on French and Spanish in the new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies and take the same courses that were available to them as part of the suspended majors. Therefore, it has no implications externally at other Campus Alberta institutions.

2.1.1 If the program or specialization is unique in the province, describe consultation within Campus Alberta to investigate feasibility of program/specialization transfer.

Consultation within Campus Alberta occurred as part of the development of the proposal for the new major in MLCS. No consultation regarding the suspension of existing majors was necessary due to the fact that courses in these languages, literatures, and cultures will still be offered within the proposed MLCS major. While the language majors may no longer exist, the institution will retain the capacity to offer language acquisition experiences in them through the MLCS major. Students’ transcripts will allow them to show their language competencies.

2.2 Describe the consultation process that occurred with students at your institution regarding this programming change.

Student feedback was solicited in various ways. In February and November 2016, respectively, the proposed new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies was presented to a total of 882 (362 and 520) students during class visits (858 students enrolled in 29 different classes, selected to represent a cross-section of all of our programs) and at a special town hall meeting held on February 25, 2016 for all students majoring in our various programs at the time (24 students attended). In both settings, students were given a presentation of the proposed changes, and were offered the opportunity to ask questions and raise concerns. Students’ comments at the town hall meeting were recorded on site. In addition, students in both settings were encouraged to complete an online questionnaire about the proposed degree, asking them to comment on what they like about the new MLCS major, and how it could be improved. We also asked them to rate their agreement with the following statement on a five-point scale: “The new MLCS major, as explained to me, would meet my expectations of a university degree in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies” (with one being “strongly disagree” and five indicating “strongly agree”). We received a total of 235 responses to the online questionnaire (26.64% response rate). With respect to the statement above, it received a 3.94 (out of 5) average rating, indicating a high level of support for the proposed major in MLCS.

Qualitative comments were overwhelmingly positive, emphasizing the focus on study abroad and experiential learning, the opportunity to combine several languages or to take the cross-cultural route, and the new major’s increased flexibility and simplification of requirements. Students also perceived the new capstone course as a valuable asset when applying for graduate studies. Moreover, they applauded the new major for buoying the smaller language areas, encouraging increased interconnectedness in MLCS, and creating a community within the department rather than just within certain disciplines.

2.3 Describe your institution’s plans to assist active students, if any remain, in completing graduation requirements during the suspension period, including information about formal communication and student advising plans.

Active students in the combined major in French and Spanish will be able to finish their studies and receive their Bachelor of Arts. Assuming the proposed major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies goes into effect in September 2019, there will be no further admission to the combined major in French and Spanish effective the 2019 academic year. Subject to government approvals of the proposed MLCS and these suspensions, students who entered the combined major in French and Spanish program prior to September 2019 would then be asked to complete all program requirements by April 30, 2024 and the last degree with a combined major in French and Spanish will be granted at Spring Convocation 2024. If any active students in the initial stages of the combined major in French and Spanish studies would like to switch to the new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies, they may opt to do so and follow the requirements of the new major.

2.4 Describe your institution’s plans to accommodate stop-out students, if any have been identified, including information about formal communication plans.

Stop-out students who have started a combined major in French and Spanish prior to September 2019 and return to finish their degree after 2019 may opt to switch to the new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies and follow the requirements of the new major.

SECTION 3: IMPACT

3.1 Identify which stakeholder groups were consulted:

☑ Faculty
☐ Regulatory and other Accreditation Bodies
☑ Other (identify below)
☐ Employers and Professional Associations

Other:

- Division of German, Russian, Arabic Languages and Muslim Cultures (School of Languages, Linguistics, Literatures and Cultures), University of Calgary
- Department of Modern Languages, University of Lethbridge
- Department of East Asian Studies, University of Alberta
- Community Service-Learning, Faculty of Arts, University of Alberta
- University of Alberta International, University of Alberta
- OASIS (Organization of Arts Students and Interdisciplinary Studies), University of Alberta
- Augustana Campus, University of Alberta
- Art Gallery of Alberta
3.1.1 Describe the consultation process conducted with these stakeholders and summarize the feedback received.

Faculty consultations:
Following the suspension of ten MLCS majors by the Dean of the Faculty of Arts in August 2013 due to persistently low enrollments, the MLCS curriculum committee prepared a proposal for a new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies. After a year-long process to develop and refine the proposal, the curriculum committee presented it to departmental colleagues, both in small groups corresponding to existing major programs and at regular departmental meetings. The chair of the curriculum committee also met with many groups and with individual faculty members to solicit their feedback. This work continued in Fall 2014, resulting in several minor changes to the proposed major, which the department voted to adopt in October and November 2014. Based on feedback from various levels of the university administration (the Faculty of Arts Dean’s office, Academic Affairs Committee), the proposal was further refined. The final course and calendar changes were approved at the MLCS department council on February 13, 2017, and by Arts Faculty Council on May 25, 2017.

Other consultations:
Following the approval of the proposal at the MLCS departmental council, letters of support were solicited from external stakeholders within Campus Alberta (U Lethbridge, U Calgary) as well as internal stakeholders at the University of Alberta (Department of East Asian Studies, UAI, CSL, Augustana Campus, OASIS). We also received a letter of support from the Art Gallery of Alberta.

Feedback was unanimously positive and all stakeholders unreservedly endorsed the new major. U Calgary mentioned that they are actually pursuing a very similar avenue for their own programs. U Lethbridge applauded the general requirements of the new major, requiring a common introductory course for all students which equips them with the necessary theoretical tools for their studies, and bringing it all together in the capstone course at the end of their degree. East Asian Studies, having just completed a similar amalgamation of their single language-based majors into a new East Asian Studies major, praised the flexibility of the new MLCS major and its reflection of best practices from other universities across North America to create a new major that is innovative, user-friendly, and marketable to today’s students. CSL, UAI, and Augustana Campus enthusiastically commended the formal integration of experiential learning and study abroad opportunities into the new major, promoting deeper academic learning and enhanced intercultural capacities for our graduating students, thus providing them with real life experiences and contacts when they enter the job market. OASIS applauded the increased flexibility of the new major, the benefits of experiential learning, study abroad, and the new capstone course, and explicitly mentioned that sufficient student consultation had taken place. All of the letters consistently acclaimed the increased focus on interdisciplinary analysis, while giving students the choice of focusing either on one language or pursuing a more cross-cultural approach, as well as the integration of experiential learning and study abroad into the new major.
3.2 Identify financial impacts and plans for reallocation of internal resources, particularly staff and classroom and lab space.

Internal reallocation is from current resources used to support the existing programs in MLCS. The impact of this reallocation on the institution’s operations and overall financial position should be negligible. There will be no impact on classroom or lab space.

SECTION B: SUSPENSION EXTENSION

SECTION 1: RATIONALE

1.1 Describe the rationale for original suspension request. (Attach ministry approval letter for the original suspension.)

1.1.1 Explain why the extension is needed and include supporting evidence (e.g., active students have not completed graduation requirements).

1.2 If there are students still in the program, describe how they will be supported to complete graduation requirements while the suspension is in place.

1.3 Explain how the duration of the suspension extension was determined.

SECTION A: PROGRAM SUSPENSION

SECTION 1: RATIONALE

1.1 Identify the purpose for the suspension with supporting rationale and evidence (e.g., low student demand, declining labour market demand, institutional capacity, need for program redevelopment, quality assurance review recommendation, etc.).

The rationale for suspending the Honors in Romance Languages in the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies is that the department proposes to consolidate all currently existing major programs into one single major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies. The proposed new major will provide a more interdisciplinary approach to the teaching of languages, literatures, and cultures, allow students to engage with more than one area of the department.

SECTION A: PROGRAM SUSPENSION

SECTION 1: RATIONALE

1.1 Identify the purpose for the suspension with supporting rationale and evidence (e.g., low student demand, declining labour market demand, institutional capacity, need for program redevelopment, quality assurance review recommendation, etc.).

The rationale for suspending the major in Comparative Literature, Honors in Comparative Literature, and Combined Honors in Comparative Literature in the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies is that the department proposes to consolidate all currently existing major programs into one single major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies. The proposed new major will provide a more interdisciplinary approach to the teaching of languages, literatures, and cultures, allow students to engage with more than one area of the department more effectively than they can in the current language-based and compartmentalized majors, and make it easier for students to study multiple languages.

Students who wish to focus on Comparative Literature in the new major will be able to do so in the proposed MLCS major.

The proposed suspension and ultimate termination of the major in Comparative Literature, Honors in Comparative Literature, and Combined Honors in Comparative Literature is a necessary administrative step.

Combined Honors in Comparative Literature: currently no enrolments

1.1.2 Indicate when admissions into program/specialization will be or were closed.

Subject to government approval, the proposed major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies will be available for students in Fall 2019. At that point, there will be no further admission to the major in Comparative Literature, Honors in Comparative Literature, or Combined Honors in Comparative Literature. Active students who entered the major in Comparative Literature, Honors in Comparative Literature, or Combined Honors in Comparative Literature prior to September 2019 will be taught out and able to finish their studies in the current program and receive their Bachelor of Arts. They would be asked to complete all program requirements by April 30, 2024 and the last degree with a major in Comparative Literature, Honors in Comparative Literature, or Combined Honors in Comparative Literature will be granted at Spring Convocation 2024. If any active students in the initial stages of the major in Comparative Literature, Honors in Comparative Literature, or Combined Honors in Comparative Literature would like to switch to the new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies, they may opt to do so and follow the requirements of the new major.

1.1.3 Explain how the proposed end date of the suspension was determined.

The proposed end date is dependent on the approval of the MLCS major. We hope that the suspension of the current majors will be implemented by July 1, 2019 with a proposed end date (dependent on government approvals) of June 30, 2024. This allows students who enrolled in the major in Comparative Literature, Honors in Comparative Literature, and Combined Honors in Comparative Literature before Sept. 2019 to finish their degree. At the end date of the suspension, the major in Comparative Literature, Honors in Comparative Literature, and Combined Honors in Comparative Literature will be terminated.

1.1.4 Provide specific information about which internal governance body approved the suspension, and provide date of approval. (Attach copy of minutes or motions.)

On May 25, 2017 Arts Faculty Council (AFC) approved the proposed MLCS major and the suspensions of all current majors (item 13.1, see attached minutes).

SECTION 2: ACCESS

2.1 Identify potential student access considerations and risks for Campus Alberta that the suspension of this program could pose (include both (a) information about related programs available to prospective students internally at your institution; and (b) externally at other Alberta institutions).

Students will be able to focus on Comparative Literature in the new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies and take the same courses that were available to them as part of the suspended majors. Therefore, it has no implications externally at other Campus Alberta institutions.

2.1.1 If the program or specialization is unique in the province, describe consultation within Campus Alberta to investigate feasibility of program/specialization transfer.

Consultation within Campus Alberta occurred as part of the development of the proposal for the new major in MLCS. No consultation regarding the suspension of existing majors was necessary due to the fact that courses in these languages, literatures, and cultures will still be offered within the proposed MLCS major.

2.2 Describe the consultation process that occurred with students at your institution regarding this programming change.

Student feedback was solicited in various ways. In February and November 2016, respectively, the proposed new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies was presented to a total of 882 (362 and 520) students during class visits (858 students enrolled in 29 different classes, selected to represent a cross-section of all of our programs) and at a special town hall meeting held on February 25, 2016 for all students majoring in our various programs at the time (24 students attended). In both settings, students were given a presentation of the proposed changes, and were offered the opportunity to ask questions and raise concerns. Students’ comments at the town hall meeting were recorded on site. In addition, students in both settings were encouraged to complete an online questionnaire about the proposed degree, asking them to comment on what they like about the new MLCS major, and how it could be improved. We also asked them to rate their agreement with the following statement on a five-point scale: “The new MLCS major, as explained to me, would meet my expectations of a university degree in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies” (with one being “strongly disagree” and five indicating “strongly agree”). We received a total of 235 responses to the online questionnaire (26.64% response rate). With respect to the statement above, it received a 3.94 (out of 5) average rating, indicating a high level of support for the proposed major in MLCS.

Qualitative comments were overwhelmingly positive, emphasizing the focus on study abroad and experiential learning, the opportunity to combine several languages or to take the cross-cultural route, and the new major’s increased flexibility and simplification of requirements. Students also perceived the new capstone course as a valuable asset when applying for graduate studies. Moreover, they applauded the new major for buoying the smaller language areas, encouraging increased interconnectedness in MLCS, and creating a community within the department rather than just within certain disciplines.

2.3 Describe your institution’s plans to assist active students, if any remain, in completing graduation requirements during the suspension period, including information about formal communication and student advising plans.

Active students in the major in Comparative Literature, Honors in Comparative Literature, and Combined Honors in Comparative Literature will be able to finish their studies and receive their Bachelor of Arts. Assuming the proposed major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies goes into effect in September 2019, there will be no further admission to the major in Comparative Literature, Honors in Comparative Literature, and Combined Honors in Comparative Literature effective the 2019 academic year. Subject to government approvals of the proposed MLCS and these suspensions, students who entered the Comparative Literature program prior to September 2019 would then be asked to complete all program requirements by April 30, 2024 and the last degree with a major in Comparative Literature, Honors in Comparative Literature, or Combined Honors in Comparative Literature will be granted at Spring Convocation 2024. If any active students in the initial stages of their Comparative Literature studies would like to switch to the new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies, they may opt to do so and follow the requirements of the new major.

2.4 Describe your institution’s plans to accommodate stop-out students, if any have been identified, including information about formal communication plans.

Stop-out students who have started a major in Comparative Literature, Honors in Comparative Literature, or Combined Honors in Comparative Literature prior to September 2019 and return to finish their degree after 2019 may opt to switch to the new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies and follow the requirements of the new major.
3.1 Identify which stakeholder groups were consulted:

- Faculty
- Advisory Committee(s)
- Regulatory and other Accreditation Bodies
- Other (identify below)
- Employers and Professional Associations

Other:
- Division of German, Russian, Arabic Languages and Muslim Cultures (School of Languages, Linguistics, Literatures and Cultures), University of Calgary
- Department of Modern Languages, University of Lethbridge
- Department of East Asian Studies, University of Alberta
- Community Service-Learning, Faculty of Arts, University of Alberta
- University of Alberta International, University of Alberta
- OASIS (Organization of Arts Students and Interdisciplinary Studies), University of Alberta
- Augustana Campus, University of Alberta
- Art Gallery of Alberta

3.1.1 Describe the consultation process conducted with these stakeholders and summarize the feedback received.

Faculty consultations:
Following the suspension of ten MLCS majors by the Dean of the Faculty of Arts in August 2013 due to persistently low enrollments, the MLCS curriculum committee prepared a proposal for a new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies. After a year-long process to develop and refine the proposal, the curriculum committee presented it to departmental colleagues, both in small groups corresponding to existing major programs and at regular departmental meetings. The chair of the curriculum committee also met with many groups and with individual faculty members to solicit their feedback. This work continued in Fall 2014, resulting in several minor changes to the proposed major, which the department voted to adopt in October and November 2014. Based on feedback from various levels of the university administration (the Faculty of Arts...
Dean’s office, Academic Affairs Committee), the proposal was further refined. The final course and calendar changes were approved at the MLCS department council on February 13, 2017, and by Arts Faculty Council on May 25, 2017.

Other consultations:
Following the approval of the proposal at the MLCS departmental council, letters of support were solicited from external stakeholders within Campus Alberta (U Lethbridge, U Calgary) as well as internal stakeholders at the University of Alberta (Department of East Asian Studies, UAI, CSL, Augustana Campus, OASIS). We also received a letter of support from the Art Gallery of Alberta.

Feedback was unanimously positive and all stakeholders unreservedly endorsed the new major. U Calgary mentioned that they are actually pursuing a very similar avenue for their own programs. U Lethbridge applauded the general requirements of the new major, requiring a common introductory course for all students which equips them with the necessary theoretical tools for their studies, and bringing it all together in the capstone course at the end of their degree. East Asian Studies, having just completed a similar amalgamation of their single language-based majors into a new East Asian Studies major, praised the flexibility of the new MLCS major and its reflection of best practices from other universities across North America to create a new major that is innovative, user-friendly, and marketable to today’s students. CSL, UAI, and Augustana Campus enthusiastically commended the formal integration of experiential learning and study abroad opportunities into the new major, promoting deeper academic learning and enhanced intercultural capacities for our graduating students, thus providing them with real life experiences and contacts when they enter the job market. OASIS applauded the increased flexibility of the new major, the benefits of experiential learning, study abroad, and the new capstone course, and explicitly mentioned that sufficient student consultation had taken place. All of the letters consistently acclaimed the increased focus on interdisciplinary analysis, while giving students the choice of focusing either on one language or pursuing a more cross-cultural approach, as well as the integration of experiential learning and study abroad into the new major.

3.2 Identify financial impacts and plans for reallocation of internal resources, particularly staff and classroom and lab space.

Internal reallocation is from current resources used to support the existing programs in MLCS. The impact of this reallocation on the institution’s operations and overall financial position should be negligible. There will be no impact on classroom or lab space.

SECTION B: SUSPENSION EXTENSION

SECTION 1: RATIONALE
1.1 Describe the rationale for original suspension request. (Attach ministry approval letter for the original suspension.)

1.1.1 Explain why the extension is needed and include supporting evidence (e.g., active students have not completed graduation requirements).

1.2 If there are students still in the program, describe how they will be supported to complete graduation requirements while the suspension is in place.

1.3 Explain how the duration of the suspension extension was determined.

SECTION A: PROGRAM SUSPENSION

SECTION 1: RATIONALE

1.1 Identify the purpose for the suspension with supporting rationale and evidence (e.g., low student demand, declining labour market demand, institutional capacity, need for program redevelopment, quality assurance review recommendation, etc.).

The rationale for suspending the major in French, Honors in French, and Combined Honors in French in the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies is that the department proposes to consolidate all currently existing major programs into one single major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies. The proposed new major will provide a more interdisciplinary approach to the teaching of languages, literatures, and cultures, allow students to engage with more than one area of the department more effectively than they can in the current language-based and compartmentalized majors, and make it easier for students to study multiple languages.

Students who wish to focus on French in the new major will be able to do so in the proposed MLCS major.

The proposed suspension and ultimate termination of the major in French, Honors in French, and Combined Honors in French is a necessary administrative step.

1.1.1 Document enrolments (by FLE and headcounts) for the most recent 5-year period, including the current academic year if available.

SECTION 3: IMPACT

3.1 Identify which stakeholder groups were consulted:
Faculty consultations:
Following the suspension of ten MLCS majors by the Dean of the Faculty of Arts in August 2013 due to persistently low enrollments, the MLCS curriculum committee prepared a proposal for a new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies. After a year-long process to develop and refine the proposal, the curriculum committee presented it to departmental colleagues, both in small groups corresponding to existing major programs and at regular departmental meetings. Combined Honors in German: currently no enrolments

1.1.2 Indicate when admissions into program/specialization will be or were closed.

Subject to government approval, the proposed major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies will be available for students in Fall 2019. At that point, there will be no further admission to the major in German, Honors in German, and Combined Honors in German. Active students who entered the major in German, Honors in German, or Combined Honors in German prior to September 2019 will be taught out and able to finish their studies in the current program and receive their Bachelor of Arts. They would be asked to complete all program requirements by April 30, 2024 and the last degree with a major in German, Honors in German, or Combined Honors in German will be granted at Spring Convocation 2024. If any active students in the initial stages of the major in German, Honors in German, or Combined Honors in German would like to switch to the new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies, they may opt to do so and follow the requirements of the new major.

1.1.3 Explain how the proposed end date of the suspension was determined.

The proposed end date is dependent on the approval of the MLCS major. We hope that the suspension of the current majors will be implemented by July 1, 2019 with a proposed end date (dependent on government approvals) of June 30, 2024. This allows students who enrolled in the major in German, Honors in German, and Combined Honors in German before Sept. 2019 to finish their degree. At the end date of the suspension, the major in German, Honors in German, and Combined Honors in German will be terminated.

1.1.4 Provide specific information about which internal governance body approved the suspension, and provide date of approval. (Attach copy of minutes or motions.)

On May 25, 2017 Arts Faculty Council (AFC) approved the proposed MLCS major and the suspensions of all current majors (item 13.1, see attached minutes).

1.2 Check the applicable box to specify the longer-term plan.

☑ To terminate the program.

☐ To reactivate the program.
SECTION 2: ACCESS

2.1 Identify potential student access considerations and risks for Campus Alberta that the suspension of this program could pose (include both (a) information about related programs available to prospective students internally at your institution; and (b) externally at other Alberta institutions).

Students will be able to focus on German in the new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies and take the same courses that were available to them as part of the suspended majors. Therefore, it has no implications externally at other Campus Alberta institutions.

2.1.1 If the program or specialization is unique in the province, describe consultation within Campus Alberta to investigate feasibility of program/specialization transfer.

Consultation within Campus Alberta occurred as part of the development of the proposal for the new major in MLCS. No consultation regarding the suspension of existing majors was necessary due to the fact that courses in these languages, literatures, and cultures will still be offered within the proposed MLCS major. While the language majors may no longer exist, the institution will retain the capacity to offer language acquisition experiences in them through the MLCS major. Students’ transcripts will allow them to show their language competencies.

2.2 Describe the consultation process that occurred with students at your institution regarding this programming change.

Student feedback was solicited in various ways. In February and November 2016, respectively, the proposed new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies was presented to a total of 882 (362 and 520) students during class visits (858 students enrolled in 29 different classes, selected to represent a cross-section of all of our programs) and at a special town hall meeting held on February 25, 2016 for all students majoring in our various programs at the time (24 students attended). In both settings, students were given a presentation of the proposed changes, and were offered the opportunity to ask questions and raise concerns. Students’ comments at the town hall meeting were recorded on site. In addition, students in both settings were encouraged to complete an online questionnaire about the proposed degree, asking them to comment on what they like about the new MLCS major, and how it could be improved. We also asked them to rate their agreement with the following statement on a five-point scale: “The new MLCS major, as explained to me, would meet my expectations of a university degree in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies” (with one being “strongly disagree” and five indicating “strongly agree”). We received a total of 235 responses to the online questionnaire (26.64% response rate). With respect to the statement above, it received a 3.94 (out of 5) average rating, indicating a high level of support for the proposed major in MLCS.

Qualitative comments were overwhelmingly positive, emphasizing the focus on study abroad and experiential learning, the opportunity to combine several languages or to take the cross-cultural route, and the new major’s increased flexibility and simplification of requirements. Students also perceived the new capstone course as a valuable asset when applying for graduate studies. Moreover, they applauded the new major for buoying the smaller language areas, encouraging increased interconnectedness in MLCS, and creating a community within the department rather than just within certain disciplines.

2.3 Describe your institution’s plans to assist active students, if any remain, in completing graduation requirements during the suspension period, including information about formal communication and student advising plans.

Active students in the major in German, Honors in German, and Combined Honors in German will be able to finish their studies and receive their Bachelor of Arts. Assuming the proposed major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies goes into effect in September 2019, there will be no further admission to the major in German, Honors in German, and Combined Honors in German effective the 2019 academic year. Subject to government approvals of the proposed MLCS and these suspensions, students who entered the German program prior to September 2019 would then be asked to complete all program requirements by April 30, 2024 and the last degree with a major in German, Honors in German, or Combined Honors in German will be granted at Spring Convocation 2024. If any active students in the initial stages of their German studies would like to switch to the new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies, they may opt to do so and follow the requirements of the new major.

2.4 Describe your institution’s plans to accommodate stop-out students, if any have been identified, including information about formal communication plans.

Stop-out students who have started a major in German, Honors in German, or Combined Honors in German prior to September 2019 and return to finish their degree after 2019 may opt to switch to the new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies and follow the requirements of the new major.

SECTION 3: IMPACT

3.1 Identify which stakeholder groups were consulted:

☑ Faculty
☐ Regulatory and other Accreditation Bodies
☐ Advisory Committee(s)
☐ Employers and Professional Associations
☑ Other (identify below)

Other:
- Division of German, Russian, Arabic Languages and Muslim Cultures (School of Languages, Linguistics, Literatures and Cultures), University of Calgary
- Department of Modern Languages, University of Lethbridge
- Department of East Asian Studies, University of Alberta
- Community Service-Learning, Faculty of Arts, University of Alberta
- University of Alberta International, University of Alberta
- OASIS (Organization of Arts Students and Interdisciplinary Studies), University of Alberta
- Augustana Campus, University of Alberta
- Art Gallery of Alberta

3.1.1 Describe the consultation process conducted with these stakeholders and summarize the feedback received.

Faculty consultations:
Following the suspension of ten MLCS majors by the Dean of the Faculty of Arts in August 2013 due to persistently low enrollments, the MLCS curriculum committee prepared a proposal for a new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies. After a year-long process to develop and refine the proposal, the curriculum committee presented it to departmental colleagues, both in small groups corresponding to existing major programs and at regular departmental meetings. The chair of the curriculum committee also met with many groups and with individual faculty members to solicit their feedback. This work continued in Fall 2014, resulting in several minor changes to the proposed major, which the department voted to adopt in October and November 2014. Based on feedback from various levels of the university administration (the Faculty of Arts Dean’s office, Academic Affairs Committee), the proposal was further refined. The final course and calendar changes were approved at the MLCS department council on February 13, 2017, and by Arts Faculty Council on May 25, 2017.
Other consultations:
Following the approval of the proposal at the MLCS departmental council, letters of support were solicited from external stakeholders within Campus Alberta (U Lethbridge, U Calgary) as well as internal stakeholders at the University of Alberta (Department of East Asian Studies, UAI, CSL, Augustana Campus, OASIS). We also received a letter of support from the Art Gallery of Alberta.

Feedback was unanimously positive and all stakeholders unreservedly endorsed the new major. U Calgary mentioned that they are actually pursuing a very similar avenue for their own programs. U Lethbridge applauded the general requirements of the new major, requiring a common introductory course for all students which equips them with the necessary theoretical tools for their studies, and bringing it all together in the capstone course at the end of their degree. East Asian Studies, having just completed a similar amalgamation of their single language-based majors into a new East Asian Studies major, praised the flexibility of the new MLCS major and its reflection of best practices from other universities across North America to create a new major that is innovative, user-friendly, and marketable to today’s students. CSL, UAI, and Augustana Campus enthusiastically commended the formal integration of experiential learning and study abroad opportunities into the new major, promoting deeper academic learning and enhanced intercultural capacities for our graduating students, thus providing them with real life experiences and contacts when they enter the job market. OASIS applauded the increased flexibility of the new major, the benefits of experiential learning, study abroad, and the new capstone course, and explicitly mentioned that sufficient student consultation had taken place. All of the letters consistently acclaimed the increased focus on interdisciplinary analysis, while giving students the choice of focusing either on one language or pursuing a more cross-cultural approach, as well as the integration of experiential learning and study abroad into the new major.

3.2 Identify financial impacts and plans for reallocation of internal resources, particularly staff and classroom and lab space.

Internal reallocation is from current resources used to support the existing programs in MLCS. The impact of this reallocation on the institution’s operations and overall financial position should be negligible. There will be no impact on classroom or lab space.

SECTION B: SUSPENSION EXTENSION

SECTION 1: RATIONALE

1.1 Describe the rationale for original suspension request. (Attach ministry approval letter for the original suspension.)
1.1.1 Explain why the extension is needed and include supporting evidence (e.g., active students have not completed graduation requirements).

1.2 If there are students still in the program, describe how they will be supported to complete graduation requirements while the suspension is in place.

1.3 Explain how the duration of the suspension extension was determined.

SECTION A: PROGRAM SUSPENSION

SECTION 1: RATIONALE

1.1 Identify the purpose for the suspension with supporting rationale and evidence (e.g., low student demand, declining labour market demand, institutional capacity, need for program redevelopment, quality assurance review recommendation, etc.).

The rationale for suspending the major in Latin American Studies and Honors in Spanish and Latin American Studies in the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies is that the department proposes to consolidate all currently existing major programs into one single major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies. The proposed new major will provide a more interdisciplinary approach to the teaching of languages, literatures, and cultures, allow students to engage with more than one area of the department more effectively than they can in the current language-based and compartmentalized majors, and make it easier for students to study multiple languages.

Students who wish to focus on Latin American Studies in the new major will be able to do so in the proposed MLCS major.

The proposed suspension and ultimate termination of the major in Latin American Studies and Honors in Spanish and Latin American Studies is a necessary administrative step.

1.1.1 Document enrolments (by FLE and headcounts) for the most recent 5-year period, including the current academic year if available.

SECTION 3: IMPACT

3.1 Identify which stakeholder groups were consulted:
Faculty consultations:
Following the suspension of ten MLCS majors by the Dean of the Faculty of Arts in August 2013 due to persistently low enrollments, the MLCS curriculum committee prepared a proposal for a new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies. After a year-long process to develop and refine the proposal, the curriculum committee presented it to departmental colleagues, both in small groups corresponding to existing major programs and at regular departmental meetings. Other consultations:
Following the approval of the proposal at the MLCS departmental council, letters of support were solicited from external stakeholders within Campus Alberta (U Lethbridge, U Calgary) as well as internal stakeholders at the University of Alberta (Department of East Asian Studies, UAI, CSL, Augustana Campus, OASIS). SECTION A: PROGRAM SUSPENSION

1.1 Identify the purpose for the suspension with supporting rationale and evidence (e.g., low student demand, declining labour market demand, institutional capacity, need for program redevelopment, quality assurance review recommendation, etc.).

1.1.2 Indicate when admissions into program/specialization will be or were closed.

Subject to government approval, the proposed major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies will be available for students in Fall 2019. At that point, there will be no further admission to the major in Scandinavian Studies or Combined Honors in Scandinavian Studies. Active students who entered the major in Scandinavian Studies or Combined Honors in Scandinavian Studies prior to September 2019 will be taught out and able to finish their studies in the current program and receive their Bachelor of Arts. They would be asked to complete all program requirements by April 30, 2024 and the last degree with a major in Scandinavian Studies or Combined Honors in Scandinavian Studies will be granted at Spring Convocation 2024. If any active students in the initial stages of the major in Scandinavian Studies or Combined Honors in Scandinavian Studies would like to switch to the new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies, they may opt to do so and follow the requirements of the new major.

1.1.3 Explain how the proposed end date of the suspension was determined.

The proposed end date is dependent on the approval of the MLCS major. We hope that the suspension of the current majors will be implemented by July 1, 2019 with a proposed end date (dependent on government approvals) of June 30, 2024. This allows students who enrolled in the major in Scandinavian Studies and Combined Honors in Scandinavian Studies before Sept. 2019 to finish their degree. At the end date of the suspension, the major in Scandinavian Studies and Combined Honors in Scandinavian Studies will be terminated.

1.1.4 Provide specific information about which internal governance body approved the suspension, and provide date of approval. (Attach copy of minutes or motions.)

On May 25, 2017 Arts Faculty Council (AFC) approved the proposed MLCS major and the suspensions of all current majors (item 13.1, see attached minutes).

1.2 Check the applicable box to specify the longer-term plan.

☑ To terminate the program.

☐ To reactivate the program.
SECTION 2: ACCESS

2.1 Identify potential student access considerations and risks for Campus Alberta that the suspension of this program could pose (include both (a) information about related programs available to prospective students internally at your institution; and (b) externally at other Alberta institutions).

Students will be able to focus on Scandinavian Studies in the new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies and take the same courses that were available to them as part of the suspended majors. Therefore, it has no implications externally at other Campus Alberta institutions.

2.1.1 If the program or specialization is unique in the province, describe consultation within Campus Alberta to investigate feasibility of program/specialization transfer.

Consultation within Campus Alberta occurred as part of the development of the proposal for the new major in MLCS. No consultation regarding the suspension of existing majors was necessary due to the fact that courses in these languages, literatures, and cultures will still be offered within the proposed MLCS major.

2.2 Describe the consultation process that occurred with students at your institution regarding this programming change.

Student feedback was solicited in various ways. In February and November 2016, respectively, the proposed new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies was presented to a total of 882 (362 and 520) students during class visits (858 students enrolled in 29 different classes, selected to represent a cross-section of all of our programs) and at a special town hall meeting held on February 25, 2016 for all students majoring in our various programs at the time (24 students attended). In both settings, students were given a presentation of the proposed changes, and were offered the opportunity to ask questions and raise concerns. Students’ comments at the town hall meeting were recorded on site. In addition, students in both settings were encouraged to complete an online questionnaire about the proposed degree, asking them to comment on what they like about the new MLCS major, and how it could be improved. We also asked them to rate their agreement with the following statement on a five-point scale: “The new MLCS major, as explained to me, would meet my expectations of a university degree in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies” (with one being “strongly disagree” and five indicating “strongly agree”). We received a total of 235 responses to the online questionnaire (26.64% response rate). With respect to the statement above, it received a 3.94 (out of 5) average rating, indicating a high level of support for the proposed major in MLCS.
Qualitative comments were overwhelmingly positive, emphasizing the focus on study abroad and experiential learning, the opportunity to combine several languages or to take the cross-cultural route, and the new major’s increased flexibility and simplification of requirements. Students also perceived the new capstone course as a valuable asset when applying for graduate studies. Moreover, they applauded the new major for buoying the smaller language areas, encouraging increased interconnectedness in MLCS, and creating a community within the department rather than just within certain disciplines.

2.3 Describe your institution’s plans to assist active students, if any remain, in completing graduation requirements during the suspension period, including information about formal communication and student advising plans.

Active students in the major in Scandinavian Studies and Combined Honors in Scandinavian Studies will be able to finish their studies and receive their Bachelor of Arts. Assuming the proposed major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies goes into effect in September 2019, there will be no further admission to the major in Scandinavian Studies and Combined Honors in Scandinavian Studies effective the 2019 academic year. Subject to government approvals of the proposed MLCS and these suspensions, students who entered the Scandinavian Studies program prior to September 2019 would then be asked to complete all program requirements by April 30, 2024 and the last degree with a major in Scandinavian Studies or Combined Honors in Scandinavian Studies will be granted at Spring Convocation 2024. If any active students in the initial stages of their Scandinavian Studies studies would like to switch to the new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies, they may opt to do so and follow the requirements of the new major.

2.4 Describe your institution’s plans to accommodate stop-out students, if any have been identified, including information about formal communication plans.

Stop-out students who have started a major in Scandinavian Studies or Combined Honors in Scandinavian Studies prior to September 2019 and return to finish their degree after 2019 may opt to switch to the new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies and follow the requirements of the new major.

SECTION 3: IMPACT

3.1 Identify which stakeholder groups were consulted:

- ☑ Faculty
- ☐ Regulatory and other Accreditation Bodies
Other:
- Division of German, Russian, Arabic Languages and Muslim Cultures (School of Languages, Linguistics, Literatures and Cultures), University of Calgary
- Department of Modern Languages, University of Lethbridge
- Department of East Asian Studies, University of Alberta
- Community Service-Learning, Faculty of Arts, University of Alberta
- University of Alberta International, University of Alberta
- OASIS (Organization of Arts Students and Interdisciplinary Studies), University of Alberta
- Augustana Campus, University of Alberta
- Art Gallery of Alberta

3.1.1 Describe the consultation process conducted with these stakeholders and summarize the feedback received.

Faculty consultations:
Following the suspension of ten MLCS majors by the Dean of the Faculty of Arts in August 2013 due to persistently low enrollments, the MLCS curriculum committee prepared a proposal for a new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies. After a year-long process to develop and refine the proposal, the curriculum committee presented it to departmental colleagues, both in small groups corresponding to existing major programs and at regular departmental meetings. The chair of the curriculum committee also met with many groups and with individual faculty members to solicit their feedback. This work continued in Fall 2014, resulting in several minor changes to the proposed major, which the department voted to adopt in October and November 2014. Based on feedback from various levels of the university administration (the Faculty of Arts Dean’s office, Academic Affairs Committee), the proposal was further refined. The final course and calendar changes were approved at the MLCS department council on February 13, 2017, and by Arts Faculty Council on May 25, 2017.

Other consultations:
Following the approval of the proposal at the MLCS departmental council, letters of support were solicited from external stakeholders within Campus Alberta (U Lethbridge, U Calgary) as well as internal stakeholders at the University of Alberta (Department of East Asian Studies, UAI, CSL, Augustana Campus, OASIS). We also received a letter of support from the Art Gallery of Alberta.

Feedback was unanimously positive and all stakeholders unreservedly endorsed the new major. U Calgary mentioned that they are actually pursuing a very similar avenue for their own programs. U Lethbridge applauded the general requirements of the new major, requiring a common introductory course for all students which equips them with the necessary theoretical tools for their studies, and bringing it all together in the capstone course at the end of their degree. East Asian Studies, having just completed a similar amalgamation of their single language-based majors into a new East Asian Studies major, praised the flexibility of the new MLCS major and its reflection of best practices from other universities across North America to create a new major that is innovative, user-friendly, and marketable to today’s students. CSL, UAI, and Augustana Campus enthusiastically commended the formal integration of experiential learning and study abroad opportunities into the new major, promoting deeper academic learning and enhanced intercultural capacities for our graduating students, thus providing them with real life experiences and contacts when they enter the job market. OASIS applauded the increased flexibility of the new major, the benefits of experiential learning, study abroad, and the new capstone course, and explicitly mentioned that sufficient student consultation had taken place. All of the letters consistently acclaimed the increased focus on interdisciplinary analysis, while giving students the choice of focusing either on one language or pursuing a more cross-cultural approach, as well as the integration of experiential learning and study abroad into the new major.

3.2 Identify financial impacts and plans for reallocation of internal resources, particularly staff and classroom and lab space.

Internal reallocation is from current resources used to support the existing programs in MLCS. The impact of this reallocation on the institution’s operations and overall financial position should be negligible. There will be no impact on classroom or lab space.

SECTION B: SUSPENSION EXTENSION

SECTION 1: RATIONALE

1.1 Describe the rationale for original suspension request. (Attach ministry approval letter for the original suspension.)

1.1.1 Explain why the extension is needed and include supporting evidence (e.g., active students have not completed graduation requirements).
1.2 If there are students still in the program, describe how they will be supported to complete graduation requirements while the suspension is in place.

1.3 Explain how the duration of the suspension extension was determined.

SECTION A: PROGRAM SUSPENSION

SECTION 1: RATIONALE

1.1 Identify the purpose for the suspension with supporting rationale and evidence (e.g., low student demand, declining labour market demand, institutional capacity, need for program redevelopment, quality assurance review recommendation, etc.).

The rationale for suspending the major in Spanish and Combined Honors in Spanish in the Department of Modern Languages and Cultural Studies is that the department proposes to consolidate all currently existing major programs into one single major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies. The proposed new major will provide a more interdisciplinary approach to the teaching of languages, literatures, and cultures, allow students to engage with more than one
Students who wish to focus on Spanish in the new major will be able to do so in the proposed MLCS major.

The proposed suspension and ultimate termination of the major in Spanish and Combined Honors in Spanish is a necessary administrative step.

1.1.1 Document enrolments (by FLE and headcounts) for the most recent 5-year period, including the current academic year if available.

SECTION 2: ACCESS

2.1 Identify potential student access considerations and risks for Campus Alberta that the suspension of this program could pose (include both (a) information about related programs available to prospective students internally at your institution; and (b) externally at other Alberta institutions).

Students will be able to focus on Spanish in the new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies and take the same courses that were available to them as part of the suspended majors. Therefore, it has no implications externally at other Campus Alberta institutions.

2.1.1 If the program or specialization is unique in the province, describe consultation within Campus Alberta to investigate feasibility of program/specialization transfer.
Consultation within Campus Alberta occurred as part of the development of the proposal for the new major in MLCS. No consultation regarding the suspension of existing majors was necessary due to the fact that courses in these languages, literatures, and cultures will still be offered within the proposed MLCS major. While the language majors may no longer exist, the institution will retain the capacity to offer language acquisition experiences in them through the MLCS major. Students’ transcripts will allow them to show their language competencies.

2.2 Describe the consultation process that occurred with students at your institution regarding this programming change.

Student feedback was solicited in various ways. In February and November 2016, respectively, the proposed new major in Modern Languages and Cultural Studies was presented to a total of 882 (362 and 520) students during class visits (858 students enrolled in 29 different classes, selected to represent a cross-section of all of our programs) and at a special town hall meeting held on February 25, 2016 for all students majoring in our various programs at the time (24 students attended). GOAL: SUSTAIN our people, our work, and the environment by attracting and stewarding the resources we need to deliver excellence to the benefit of all.

Objective 21: Encourage continuous improvement in administrative, governance, planning, and stewardship systems, procedures, and policies that enable students, faculty, staff, and the institution as a whole to achieve shared strategic goals.

Compliance with Legislation, Policy and/or Procedure Relevant to the Proposal (please quote legislation and include identifying section numbers)

1. Post-Secondary Learning Act (PSLA): The PSLA gives GFC responsibility, subject to the authority of the Board of Governors, over academic affairs. Further, the PSLA gives the Board of Governors authority over certain admission requirements and rules respecting enrolment of students to take courses. The Board has delegated its authority over these areas to GFC. GFC has thus established, and delegated certain powers to, an Academic Standards Committee.

2. PSLA “29(1) A faculty council may:

   (d) determine the conditions under which a student must withdraw from or may continue the student’s program of studies in the faculty subject to any conditions or restrictions that are imposed by the general faculties council.

3. GFC Academic Standards Committee Terms of Reference (Mandate of the Committee)

   “A. Definitions

   i. “Routine and/or Editorial
the term “routine and/or editorial” refers to proposals which do not involve or affect other Faculties or units; do not form part of a proposal for a new program; and which do not involve alteration of an existing quota or establishment of a new quota. Editorial or routine changes include any and all changes to the wording of an admissions or academic standing policy.

B. Admission and Transfer, Academic Standing, Marking and Grading, Term Work, Examinations, International Baccalaureate (IB), Advanced Placement (AP)

i. All proposals from the Faculties or the Administration related to admission and transfer, to the academic standing of students, to institutional marking and grading policies and/or procedures and to term work policies and procedures are submitted to the Provost and Vice President (Academic) (or delegate) who chairs the GFC Academic Standards Committee. ASC will consult as necessary with the Faculties and with other individuals and offices in its consideration of these proposals.

ii. ASC acts for GFC in approving routine and/or editorial changes to both admission/transfer policies and academic standing regulations”

4. PSLA: The PSLA gives Faculty Councils the authority to “determine the conditions under which a student must withdraw from or may continue the student’s program of studies in a faculty” (Section 29(1)(d)).

5. UAPPOL Academic Standing Policy: “All current academic standing regulations, including academic standing categories, University graduating standards and requirements for all individual programs will be those prescribed by Faculty Councils and GFC as set forth in the University Calendar.”

6. UAPPOL Academic Standing Regulations Procedures: “All proposed new academic standing regulations and changes to existing academic standing regulations will be submitted by the Faculties or the Administration to the Provost and Vice-President (Academic). Faculties will also submit to the Provost and Vice-President (Academic) any proposed changes to the use and/or computation of averages relating to academic standing, including promotion and graduation. If the Provost and Vice-President (Academic) determines the proposal to be in good order, the proposal will be introduced to the appropriate University governance process(es). In considering these proposals, governance bodies will consult as necessary with the Faculties and with other individuals and offices. Normally, changes become effective once they are approved by GFC or its delegate and are published in the University Calendar.”

d. Conditional Standing: Assigned to a student who achieves a GPA of 2.1 or above but has failed one or more courses.

A student who is assigned Conditional Standing will be placed on Academic Warning and must retake and pass all failed courses. Other courses are to be taken, up to a normal course load, as scheduling permits and as approved by the Faculty.

Students on Academic Warning as a result of acquiring Conditional Standing will clear their Academic Warning upon passing the repeated courses and will qualify for promotion if they achieve Satisfactory Standing on the basis of all courses taken during the Year of Study.

Students who fail a course a second time will be required to withdraw from the program.

e. Required to Withdraw: Any student failing to obtain a minimum GPA of 2.1 in any academic year is required to withdraw from the program.

- Required to Withdraw:
  1. Any student failing to obtain a minimum GPA of 2.1 in any academic year is Required to Withdraw from the program.
  2. Students who fail a course a second time...
Rationale:
The Doctor of Pharmacy (PharmD) program was approved in August 2016. Part of the proposal was a bridging program that would allow current BSc in Pharmacy students to transfer into the PharmD degree program. The bridging program is formally called the Doctor of Pharmacy (PharmD) for BSc in Pharmacy Students and was implemented in Spring 2017.

Revised academic regulations are provided here for the PharmD program. These regulations are based on the existing BSc in Pharmacy and PharmD for Practicing Pharmacist degrees.

Alignment/Compliance

Alignment with Guiding Documents

For the Public Good

GOAL: Sustain our people, our work, and the environment by attracting and stewarding the resources we need to deliver excellence to the benefit of all.

21. OBJECTIVE

Encourage continuous improvement in administrative, governance, planning, and stewardship systems, procedures, and policies that enable students, faculty, staff, and the institution as a whole to achieve shared strategic goals.

1. Strategy: Encourage transparency and improve communication across the university through clear consultation and decision-making processes, substantive and timely communication of information, and access to shared, reliable institutional data.

2. Strategy: Ensure that individual and institutional annual review processes align with and support key institutional strategic goals.

3. Strategy: Consolidate unit review and strategic planning processes, and where possible, align with accreditation processes, to ensure efficient assessment practices.

4. Strategy: Facilitate easy access to and use of university services and systems, reduce duplication and complexity, and encourage cross-institutional administrative and operational collaboration.

Compliance with Legislation, Policy and/or Procedure

In exceptional circumstances a student who has failed to meet the doctoral program three-year progress requirement, as specified in Doctoral Program Three-Year Progress Requirements, may be considered for an extension. |
The Department has the delegated authority to approve the first extension to the doctoral program three-year progress requirement.

Under exceptional circumstances an additional extension may be granted. Authority for the approval of a second and subsequent doctoral program three-year progress requirement extensions rests with the Dean, FGSR.

All requests for an extension to the doctoral program three-year progress requirement will only be considered if there are sufficient, and substantial unforeseen circumstances beyond the control of the student and/or supervisor which prevent completion of the program within the time limits.

The doctoral program three-year progress requirement extension may be considered for up to one year at a time.

Justification: Separated out Program extensions and Doctoral Program Three-year Progress Requirement extensions. Departments have delegated authority to approve the first program extension. Extensions for parental leave is left-over from when the time limit for completion of the degree was not extended by the duration of an approved leave of absence. Programs contains a listing of the required and optional courses.

Thesis-based programs: The total credit weight required for any thesis-based program will not be reduced by any combination of Transfer Credit and Course Exemption from the requirement set out in Graduate Programs by more than ★6 (except as noted below).

Course-based programs: The number of courses nearest to, but not exceeding, 1/3 of the total units of course weight of a student’s program can be met through transfer credit and/or course exemption if recommended by the department and approved by the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research on a case-by-case basis.

In exceptional circumstances and with the explicit prior approval of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research, up to 1/2 of the total units of course weight for the program may be met through transfer credit and/or course exemption.

For students participating in formal exchange programs which have been ratified by the University of Alberta, consideration will be given for transfer of credit earned during the exchange and approved in principle by the department in advance, even if the credit value transferred exceeds the limit stated above.

Criteria for Transfer Credit and Course Exemption
The criteria that must be met before transfer credit will be considered are:

- the department agrees that the course in question is applicable to the degree program;
- the student achieves a grade acceptable to the department and the FGSR;
- the course has not been used as a part of the basis for admission to the program; and
- the course has not been taken as part of any previously awarded degree, diploma, certificate, etc.

For the laddering of graduate certificates and diplomas into a course-based Master’s degree see Laddering [link].

Courses taken as a qualifying graduate student are Exceptions: For students who have commenced an equivalent graduate program at a recognized university and are relocating to the University of Alberta, consideration will be given to departmental recommendations for transfer credit which exceeds the limit stated above. Other exemptions specific to individual programs are discussed in the Program descriptions in Graduate Programs.

Students should note that they cannot apply directly for transfer credit or course exemption; the department must petition the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research on the student's behalf. Transfer credit and course exemption are granted at the discretion of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research. The Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research does not accept credit by special assessment.

The FGSR reserves the right to deny transfer credit for courses taken far enough in the past that the material could be considered out of date. AP Capstone Diploma Background

The AP Capstone Diploma program was approved in Fall 2015 by the College Board, a higher education organization that prepares students for College and University, after two years as a pilot project. Like the IB Diploma program, AP Capstone is intended to prepare high achieving students for University. In 2016, a request from High School AP counsellors in Alberta was brought forward to the University of Alberta to review the program for transfer credit potential. After a full review by the Faculties of Arts and Science and consultation with the Faculty of Engineering, it was deemed acceptable to offer credit in a 100-level open elective worth 3 units of course weight.

The AP Capstone Diploma program consists of three components:

1. Writing four AP final subject exams
2. Completing the AP Seminar
3. Completing a research project with a 4000 word paper and oral defence

Completion of the three components marked as high (graded a 3 on a 5 scale), is mandatory for the awarding of the diploma.

As the University of Alberta has already assessed the rigor and outcomes of the 4 AP subject exams, it was not necessary to review them again. Agreements for AP subject exams have been in place for many years and are reviewed annually when curriculum changes are provided to us from the College Board, changes are presented to ASC under separate cover. The review process for this proposal was to assess the rigor and outcomes of the seminar and research project, and the scoring rubric used. The full course outline for the research project and seminar was provided to faculties, as well as grading guidelines with examples of work scored high, medium, and low.

The College Board’s description of the research project:

AP Research, the second course in the AP Capstone experience, allows students to deeply explore an academic topic, problem, issue, or idea of individual interest. Students design, plan, and implement a year long investigation to address a research question. Through this inquiry, they further the skills they acquired in the AP Seminar course by learning research methodology, employing ethical research practices, and accessing, analyzing, and synthesizing information. Students reflect on their skill development, document their processes, and curate the artifacts of their scholarly work through a process and reflection portfolio. The course culminates in an academic paper of 4,000—5,000 words (accompanied by a performance, exhibit, or product where applicable) and a presentation with an oral defense.

The decision by faculties to support this proposal is supported by the quality of the curriculum offered by the College Board and the success of AP students at the University of Alberta.
