The University of Alberta governs itself with a bicameral governance structure (literally, it is governance in two chambers): Board of Governors and General Faculties Council.

- Although the Board is the senior of the two, the Board and GFC share and balance power within the University.

The University Governance Unit, under the direction of the University Secretary, provides support for all areas of the Board and GFC.
Where Does GFC’s Authority Come From?

Province of Alberta enacts

LEGISLATION: Post-Secondary Learning Act of 2003 (PSLA) that establishes

AUTONOMOUS ENTITY: University of Alberta, with an ACADEMIC GOVERNING BODY:
General Faculties Council (subject to the Board)
System of governance that depends heavily upon the participation of colleagues to establish and realize a shared purpose.

Provides an opportunity for citizens to participate in decision-making, and it is the hallmark of academic decision-making.
