St. Joseph’s College
St. Joseph’s College

• Mission
• A community within a community
• At the service of the University and UofA students
• “As the Catholic college affiliated with the University of Alberta, St. Joseph's College is committed to engaging with and promoting the Church's traditional openness to exploring the unity of Faith and Reason.”
History

• Archbishop O’Leary, Premier Alexander Rutherford and the University President, Henry Marshall Tory, worked to establish St. Joseph’s College.
• 1926 under the Act to Incorporate St. Joseph’s College (Act of Legislature)
• Affiliation Agreement
• Canadian context and the Affiliate model
• UofA is the only University in Alberta with affiliate Colleges
• We are part of the heritage, fabric, and future of UofA.
Residences

• Educating/supporting the whole student

• Residence
  • 63 male residences
  • 284 women
    • Built in 2014
    • The only women’s residence on campus
    • 24 single suites, 45 double suites,
    • 39 four bedroom units
    • Additional security

• Dining hall
  • All you can eat for 12.50 lunch
• Worshipping Community
  • Daily mass, 4 weekend masses
    • 300 average
    • Campus food bank
    • Sponsored 7 refugee families

• Two chapels
  • Student’s spiritual lives
  • Campus spiritual lives

• Campus Ministry
  • Fostering the well being and health of students
  • Two campus ministers, one chaplain, and a part time psychologist for UofA students
Academics

• Arts options courses, undergraduate focus
• SJC is a space where the intersection of faith and scholarship are offered to all students
• The Catholic Intellectual Tradition
  • The pursuit of truth as paramount.
Academic

• Teaching
  • 9 tenured and tenure track faculty (5 courses each)
  • 15-20 sessionals
  • Over 60 courses per year (multiple sections)
  • Increasing enrolments (1853, 2180, 2615)
  • SJC courses have served 17,763 University of Alberta enrolments since 2010

• Service
  • Full time faculty- thesis committees, hiring committees, grant applications.
  • 25,000 volume Library collection integrated with NEOS
• Research
  • At the level of a U15
  • 9 tenured and tenure track faculty
    • Philosophy, Ethics, Hebrew Bible,
    • New Testament, Religious Education
    • Science and Religion, service learning.
  • Experts who teach
    • 5 course load (40/40/20)
    • FEC process (2 UofA faculty, and one external)
Partnerships

• Faculty of Arts and Dr. Lesley Cormack
  • SJC courses are housed in Arts
  • Providing professors to various departments
• Conversations with Provost and VP’s
• Partnership with ECSD for our Certificate in Catholic Education
• Research Project with Catholic Health of Alberta
• Testing ground for new USRI models with CTL
• Reviewing degree programs in the province for UofA
• SJC and Faculty of Native Studies: film and panel discussion
• Currently working with ECSD and Covenant Health for a conference on the sex abuse crisis
• SBL/AAR PNW Regional to campus.
• SJC serves over 3000 students per year through courses, residence, and supports UofA with a community with the larger community.
• SJC has thus served over 27000 students since 2010.
• We offer learning and living environments to UofA’s benefit.
• The College is a fundamental contributor to the University’s strategic goal of Experience and the ability to offer “diverse and rewarding learning opportunities that inspire us…. “.