3. Report from the President

   The Chair spoke about the controversy around the honorary degree to be awarded to David Suzuki in June. He reminded members of how honorary degrees were decided and the history behind it. Members indicated their support of the President's opinion piece published in The Quad and Edmonton Journal (copies made available to members at the meeting), noting it represented the highest values of the university and upheld free speech and academic integrity. Members also expressed concern about the impact on external relations and fundraising efforts. Members acknowledged the different opinions across campus, the province, and the country. Members also noted the professionalism of the university staff who had been responding to the many emails and phone calls from various stakeholders on this matter.

   The Chair noted that the official grant letter from the government had not been received. He noted that differences between government funding and budget assumptions would normally be treated as an in-year budget variance and options would be discussed by the Board.

   The Chair welcomed the Dean of Medicine and Dentistry, Richard Fedorak, who had returned from leave. He also announced the appointment of Shanthi Johnson as Dean of the School of Public Health effective July 1 and the appointment of Deborah Burshtyn as Interim Vice-Provost and Dean of the Faculty of Graduate Studies and Research effective August 1.

   The Chair announced Lois Harder as the new Principal of Peter Lougheed Leadership College effective July 1 and thanked Kim Campbell and Martin Ferguson-Pell for their efforts in establishing the college.

   The Chair also noted that the new Vice-President (Research) Matthias Ruth would be starting on May 1 and thanked Walter Dixon for his efforts during his tenure as Interim Vice-President (Research).

   The Chair noted that the University Teaching Awards Committee had completed their adjudication and congratulated the winners.

   The Chair also noted that this was the final meeting for the current student members of GFC and thanked them for their service to academic governance.
